MARKED DECLINE IN NEW INFLUENZA CASES, NUMBER FOR 24 HOURS BEING 475

Public Funerals After Influenza Deaths Discouraged

UNDERTAKERS have been asked by Dr. M. C. Woodruff, chief diagnostician of the Health Department, to make every effort to prevent the holding of public funerals in the cases of persons who have died of influenza-pneumonia.

No special order forbidding such funerals has been issued by the department, but Dr. Woodruff called attention to the ordinance forbidding public funerals in cases of death from contagious diseases, as one which should be observed at this time.

Some of the undertakers suggested that it would be better to make the request of pastors of churches. Several public funerals have been announced in the cases of persons who died from influenza-pneumonia.

MAYOR'S SECRETARY DIES OF MENINGITIS

Harry M. Crutcher Succumbs After Three Weeks' Illness Beginning With Influenza.

Harry M. Crutcher, 30 years old, secretary to the Mayor, died at his home, 2302 Humphrey street, at 8:05 a. m. today of meningitis, following influenza and pneumonia. He had been ill about three weeks.

He had been in Mayor Kiel's office six years, serving as assistant secretary the first year and a half, and since that time as secretary. He was elected president of the community advertising section of the Advertising Clubs of America at the convention in New Orleans last September.

In addition to his regular duties he served as the Mayor's personal representative at all conferences which arranged for the welcoming home of returned soldiers and the reception of distinguished visitors, including Gen. Pershing, the King and Queen of the Belgians and Cardinal Mercier of Belgium. He was active in all the municipal participation in war activities. He was in charge of the campaign to raise funds for the relief of Belgian babies and only recently completed the task of managing the Red Cross Christmas seal campaign.

Crutcher was indirectly honored when King Albert of Belgium decorated the Mayor. The King said that he appreciated greatly the fact that St. Louis was the second largest contributor to the Belgian baby fund of all the American cities.

Crutcher was a member of the City Club, the Advertising Club of St. Louis, and was on the Publicity Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

He is survived by his widow and a son, Robert Crutcher, 8 years old. Before entering the Mayor's office he was a newspaper reporter at the city hall.

The funeral will be held from the residence at 2:30 p. m. Sunday.

MAN, HIT BY AUTO, GETS $8500

East St. Louis Man Obtains Judgment Against William H. Becker.

A jury in the East St. Louis City Court this morning returned a verdict for $8500 damages in favor of William Phillips, 49 years old, of 608 Pennsylvania avenue, East St. Louis, in his suit against William H. Becker of St. Louis, growing out of injuries received by Phillips, March 4 last, when he was struck by Becker's automobile, driven by Leo Morton, 18 years old, an employee of the Becker-Hess Commission Co. Becker's car ran wild on Collinsville avenue, hitting Phillips and another man, who was killed. Becker said the car was used without his consent.

Phillips suffered a fracture of the left leg and other injuries. The jury decided Becker was responsible. Becker's liability insurance paid $1000 to the heirs of the man who was killed.

6418 Cases Since Jan. 19, of Which 1300 Have Been Terminated by Recovery or Death.

68 MORE FATALITIES MAKE TOTAL 622

26 New Cases at City Hospital, Where Children Are Now Being Admitted; Seven Deaths There.

The number of deaths from influenza and pneumonia for the 24-hour period at 4 o'clock this afternoon was 58, a decrease of 12 from the number for the previous 24 hours.

A marked decline in the number of new influenza cases was shown by the official reports of such cases for the 24-hour period ending at 9 a. m. today. The number was 475, which is 206 less than that of the preceding 24 hours, and 282 less than the number for the 24 hours ending Wednesday morning, which was 757, the highest number for any one day since influenza became prevalent, Jan. 19.

The number of deaths, as reported at 4 p. m. yesterday, for the preceding 24-hour period, also showed a decline, the total yesterday being 68, and that of the previous day 75. Yesterday's reports were divided equally between influenza and pneumonia, some of the latter not having originated in cases of influenza.

The total number of new cases reported since Jan. 19 is 6418, of which more than 1300 have been terminated by recovery, officially reported, or by death.

The number of deaths from these causes reported since Jan. 20, when deaths from influenza began to appear, is 622 from pneumonia and 229 from influenza, a total of 851.

At the city hospital, 26 new influenza cases were received in the 24-hour period ending at 3 a. m. today, and in the same time there were four deaths from influenza-pneumonia, besides three deaths from pneumonia not originating in influenza.

Contractor, 77, Dies Two Hours After Son at City Hospital.

Thomas Hall, 77 years old, of 5207 West avenue, a building contractor, died at the city hospital at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, two hours after the death of his son, Nathan Hall, 52 years old, a carpenter, at the same time.

The elder Hall's death resulted from influenza. He had been ill less than a week. Nathan Hall died from pneumonia, from which he had suffered several years. Both men were removed to the hospital from their home last Saturday. Neither knew the other was in a serious condition.

Funeral services for both men will be held tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, at private chapel at 2710 North Grand avenue. Burial will be in Bellefontaine Cemetery.

Laborer, Wife and Four Children in Hospital With Influenza.

Frank Meese, 42 years old, of 1415 North Twelfth street, and his wife, Caroline, 32; their 6-year-old son, and three younger daughters, were admitted to the city hospital today, all suffering from influenza.

George Billingsley, 58, of 4365 Northolt avenue, and his daughter, Lizzie, 3, were discharged from the hospital yesterday as having recovered from influenza, shortly before Billingsley's wife and two children were admitted to the institution, suffering from influenza.

Children are now being received at the City Hospital, as well as at the Children's Hospital, a part of the Barnes Hospital group.

Death of Pastor of St. Paul's Church Not Caused by Influenza.

Inquiry was made by the Health Department as to the cause for the death of the Rev. Dr. William Court, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Church, this funeral being announced to take place in the church this afternoon. It was stated that Dr. Court's death was not caused by influenza, as at first reported, but by enteritis. The department, therefore, will have no objection to the public funeral.

W. FRANK CARTER APPOINTED TO EDUCATION BOARD

President of Chamber of Commerce Accepts Vacancy Caused by Death of Dr. John M. Grant.

OF SAME POLITICS AS LATE MEMBER

Mayor Favors One Woman From Each Party on Board But Believes Voters Should Pass on Matter.

W. Frank Carter, president of the Chamber of Commerce, has been offered appointment by Mayor Kiel to fill the vacancy in the Board of Education caused by the recent death of Dr. John M. Grant. He has accepted, but formal announcement is being withheld pending official notification to the Mayor by the board that a vacancy exists.

Carter said that in general school teachers were underpaid, but that he would enter the local situation regarding what can be done to advance pay with an open mind.

The bipartisan complexion of the Board of Education will continue, as Carter is a Democrat. Dr. Grant was a Democrat.

The Mayor said today that he had been besieged by groups of citizens supporting various other citizens for the appointment. Women had begun to circulate petitions asking for the appointment of Mrs. George Gellhorn, 4366 McPherson avenue, chairman of the Missouri League of Women Voters.

When asked why he had decided not to appoint a woman, said he felt that he ought not to take from the voters the privilege of deciding whether they desired the innovation of having women on the board, and particularly that such a step should not be taken in a temporary appointment for the filling of a vacancy caused by death.

"I believe there should be not only one woman on the board, but two," he said, "one of each party. I shall favor the naming of a woman by the Republicans at the next election for members of the board. But the voters should pass on the matter."

Mrs. Gellhorn had been endorsed by several women's organizations, including the College Club and the executive board of the Wednesday Club. Members of the City Club, after listening to a speaker in her behalf on Wednesday, adopted a resolution advising her appointment.

The Building Trades Council yesterday presented a resolution to the Mayor endorsing its secretary, Maurice J. Cassidy, for the appointment.

Carter is a practicing lawyer. He is a graduate of the public schools of Farmington, Mo., Smith Academy in St. Louis and the University of Michigan Law School. He is a former vice president of the Mercantile Trust Co. He still is a director of that institution, and of the following other St. Louis business organizations: Scullin Steel Co., Jefferson Hotel Co., Missouri State Life Insurance Co., Scruggs, Vandervoort & Barney and the Industrial Loan Co. His home is at 5846 Cabanne avenue.

LABOR TO TAKE AGGRESSIVE PART IN COMING CAMPAIGN

Leaders Decide in Washington Conference to Oppose All Unfriendly to Union Principles.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Plans for the most aggressive and general political campaign ever waged by the American Federation of Labor were formulated at a meeting here today of a general committee composed of the Executive Council and the heads of all departments of the federation.

It was said officially that the campaign to be conducted in connection with the general elections in November not only would be aimed at members of Congress, or candidates for Congress, but also at organized labor, but also at unfriendly candidates for President, Governor and for members of state legislatures.

To cover the country.

Every trade and craft affiliated with the federation will be called upon to take up the fight in every section of the country, and to exert every effort to elect only such public officials as are favorable to the principles of organized labor. It was said that a vast army of organizers and workers would be recruited for the campaign.

Every member of the present House or Senate offering himself for re-election who has by his record shown an unfriendly spirit toward organized labor, it was said, will be opposed by the labor vote, which federation officials placed at about 4,000,000.

President Gompers presided at the session today, and there was the fullest discussion of the whole question. Formal announcement of the federation's plans is expected after the meeting ends late today.

At the bottom of the 1913 advertisement, was this quotation: "Whisker, highly recommended for family use, mild, mellow and well-aged, per quart, 54c."

He pointed out the barrel, and paid $30 for a gallon of the contents. Then the hidden members of the squad popped out and arrested him. He said he was Nick Elz, a member of the Bartenders' Union. It is planned to summon him as a witness against the proprietor.

At the time of Haderlein's arrest last night no evidence of a sale of liquor was obtained. The proprietor was arrested when he was found alone in the place, and the intoxicants were confiscated, including 10 barrels of whiskey, 15 barrels of wine, 25 lbs. of whiskey and several cases of bottled beer.

AIRPLANE GETS PASTOR TO SUNDAY SCHOOL ON TIME

Former Chaplain Makes 100-Mile Flight Home After Refereeing Boxing Bout.

CHANUTE, Kan., Feb. 6.—A flight from Wichita to Chanute, approximately 100 miles, in an airplane, was made by the Rev. E. A. Blackburn, pastor of the Chanute Christian Church, to enable him to teach his Bible class at 10:45 Sunday morning.

The pastor, who was a chaplain with the Thirty-fifth Division overseas, was refereed at a boxing bout staged in Wichita Saturday night by the Wichita post of the American Legion. As it was impossible for him to make the trip to Chanute by train in time for Sunday school, the legion made arrangements for the air trip.

He will oppose M. A. Romjue of Macon, the incumbent. Col. Col. Rieger led the troops which captured Extermont. When the Thirty-fifth Division returned to America, Col. Rieger was in command of the 138th Regiment and led its parade through St. Louis.

COMPLAINS OF CENSUS WORK

A complaint of incomplete census enumeration was made by Alderman Tammie at last evening's meeting of the Board of Aldermen. Tammie, who lives at 1612A Market street, said no census enumerator had questioned him or any member of his family. He expressed surprise that there should be neglect of such a central and populous neighborhood.

Alderman Godfrey remarked that the police were making a canvass to check up on the enumerators. Tammie replied that "a lot of people are timid about giving information to policemen."

MANY OF HEAVY LOSSES RECOVERED

U. S. Steel Rebounds Above Par After Falling to 97 1/2—Call Money Eases From 17 to 10 Per Cent.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Prices of stocks tumbled today under heavy selling despite improvement in foreign exchange. Leading issues dropped from 6 to 15 points below the opening and made new low records for the current movement. Losses of 2 to 5 points were numerous and United States Steel fell to 97 1/2, its lowest quotation for months. There was, however, wild closing in which many of the losses were recovered.

Prices opened 1 to 7 points up, but reacted after the first hour and soon there was heavy liquidation. The break was accelerated by 17 per cent call money.

Declines of 6 to 15 points from the opening prices occurred in General Motors, Mexican Petroleum, Crutcher Steel, Texas Company, Industrial Alcohol, American Woolen and General Electric.

With sterling worth 10 cents more to the pound than yesterday and with francs opening at 14.32, also a good advance, the early market showed strength all along the list. Sterling went to $3.39 soon after opening.

By the end of the first hour, however, sterling had dropped back to $3.34 1/2.

In the afternoon, to complete an acrobatic day, the market had one of the wildest closing hours in months, with a big rally after the heavy declines earlier in the day. The easing of call money from 17 to 10 per cent caused advances of 2 to 12 points after declines as high as 15 points earlier in the day. In some instances losses were fully recovered. United States Steel common rebounded above par after selling at 97 1/2.

World Financial Conference Favored in French Circles.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, Feb. 6.—Proposals that an international financial conference be called immediately to consider measures for the relief of the international exchange situation find support in French Government circles. The plan has been suggested by Great Britain and is said to be the outgrowth of the recent bankers' conference at Amsterdam, at which the situation was considered with the conclusion that international action was necessary. Eventual participation by the United States in such a conference is expected by French financiers.

In the absence of other effective measures one banker said restrictions on imports would probably become more rigorous. It is pretty well recognized here that there is a credit crisis. Financiers consider that a grave phase of the situation was opened with the shutting off by the United States of credits to cover French purchases.

20 INCHES OF SNOW COVERS NEW ENGLAND, BLOCKING RAILROADS

Battering of Storm Undermines Lighthouse English Built in 1764

ALTHOUGH Henlopen Light, one of the famous landmarks of the Atlantic Coast, has been undermined by the battering of heavy seas and storm of the last two days, it was said by shipping men here today to be in no immediate danger. The velocity of the wind decreased considerably during the night and it is believed the light would again weather the storm in safety. A report that the structure was leaning could not be verified as the telephone wire there is out of commission. Harry Palmer, chief keeper, and three assistants, refused to leave the lighthouse, which was built by the English in 1764.

Thirty Trains Reported Stalled in Drifts in Neighborhood of Boston With Communication Curtailed.

By the Associated Press.

BOSTON, Feb. 6.—All energies were directed in New England today to recovering from the effects of the severest blizzard in a decade. With transportation demoralized and telephone and telegraph service considerably impaired, industrial and community life was paralyzed except in Northern Vermont, which alone was spared the fury of the storm.

Nearly 20 trains were reported stalled throughout New England last night, the majority in the vicinity of this city. Among them were the Merchants' Limited from New York, stalled seven miles outside Providence.

The freight problem was considered serious today, and railroad officials announced that right of way would be given to milk and other perishable goods.

New York City Buried Under Heavy Snow.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—The gale and unusually high tides which lashed the North Atlantic coast for the last two days, accompanied by a blizzard which blanketed most of the territory with snow and ice, were gradually subsiding early today, leaving a trail of destruction and suffering in their wake.

Estimates of the property damage run well beyond $2,000,000. Several Long Island Sound steamers were prisoners in ice jams. The wireless station at New York police headquarters early today had received messages from 39 ships at sea asking for the location.

Towns Partly Inundated.

Points along the New Jersey coast, especially Atlantic City and Seabright, were hardest hit. Houses were washed into the sea and towns partly inundated. Resorts along the Long Island shore near New York also were heavily damaged.

Railroad traffic stopped during the morning, although trains were still behind in their schedules.

New York was slow to recover from the blow dealt by the storm. Traffic conditions were still chaotic all of noon in the East this winter, with the streets piled high with snowdrifts.

The shortage of coal caused considerable apprehension. Traction companies said they had only a few days' supply on hand and that they could be forced to suspend operations unless their bunkers were speedily replenished. Barges laden with coal are tied up at Jersey points by ice floes.

Tank Pushes Trolley Cars.

One of the novelties of the storm, was the use of an army tank to push stalled trolley cars.

Scores of pedestrians were injured today when signs and marquis collapsed from the weight of snow upon them. Such accidents at two theaters and one hotel in the heart of the Broadway-theatrical district necessitated sending a doctor, persons to hospitals and calling out police reserves.

Lieutenant-Colonel Frederick Davison, stationed at Governor's Island, was dangerously injured when he was struck by a falling glass awning in front of the playhouse in West Forty-eighth street. Both his legs were broken and it is feared that his skull was fractured. Two other men were similarly injured in front of the Rivolt Theater in Broadway.

Old Dominion Steamship With 104 Aboard Runs Ashore Mile Off Rockaway Point, Long Island.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—The steamship Princess Anne of the Old Dominion Line, carrying 32 passengers and a crew of 72 from Norfolk, Va. to New York, ran aground one mile off the coast at Rockaway Point, Long Island, in a heavy storm early today, and sent out 8 O. S. calls for assistance. Tugs from army transport headquarters at Hoboken, wrecking tugs and a police patrol boat went to the aid of the stranded vessel.

Wireless reports said that Capt. Seay of the Princess Anne had been seriously injured. The vessel's position was considered serious on account of the gale that had lashed the coast for two days.

Members of the coast guard at Rockaway Beach endeavored to launch a boat to go to the steamer, but gave up the attempt when giant rollers nearly battered the craft to pieces.

Later reports from the stranded ship were that she was taking water rapidly, and the Captain requested that passengers and crew be taken off before night.

Communication between the Princess Anne and shore wireless stations will soon fail if the lack of battery, a message from the ship indicated this afternoon.

UNIVERSITY CLUB MEN SIP TEA IN TAP ROOM

Flagon Gives Way to China Cup and There Is Little Treating at New Function.

In the tap room of the University Club, where once the Bronx cocktail, the horse's neck, the silver fish and the Scotch highball were in prime favor and water was not a beverage but a "chaser," there was a tea-drinking bout from 4:20 to 6 p. m. yesterday. Wassail gave way to oolong and the flagon was replaced by the prim china cup, cheering but kickless.

It was the first of the "afternoon teas" to be given daily at the club. Invitations were mailed to members and the number of acceptances was surprising to the club management.

About 35 members visited the tap room in the hours designated as "tea time" and there was much sober discussion of current events as they sipped the unwonted beverage.

There was no camouflage. It was real tea, and most of those who sampled it said they believed they could learn to like it. Wafers were served with the tea.

The service cost about the same as mixed drinks formerly cost at the club, 25 cents, but there were not as many "repeat" orders and no treating. Tea will be served each afternoon if there is sufficient demand for it.

PRESIDENT WILSON EXPECTED TO BEAT HIS DESK IN SPRING

Those Caring for Him at White House Will Be Disappointed if He Is Not; Walking With Cane.

MOVIES SHOWN IN EAST ROOM FOR HIM

He Spends One to Three Hours a Day With Official Documents and Newspapers; Slowly Progressing

By DAVID LAWRENCE, A Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—President Wilson seems to be getting along about as well as could be expected for a man who has had a severe nervous breakdown.

Interest in his condition appears much more acute outside of the national capital than inside, where official folk, busy with a multitude of things, have come to a methodical system of handling the business which ordinarily would have the attention of Mr. Wilson.

Inquiry at the White House reveals that the President walks about his bedroom and the upper apartments of the home with the aid of a cane, but that he is wheeled out doors to avoid slipping on the snow-covered portico and steps. He seems to enjoy his daily exposure to the winter weather, which, for Washington, is rather extreme nowadays, and more like that of a city along the Great Lakes than one south of Mason and Dixon's line.

The President leads more or less a monotonous life—closed in from all friends and official colleagues.

Grayson Keeps Callers Out.

Dr. Cary T. Grayson, his physician, manages to keep Senators, Cabinet members and Ambassadors from seeing the President, as the latter has always preferred to be alone. That official matters be put in writing. He spends from an hour to three hours a day reading memoranda and the newspapers and feels in fairly close touch with what is going on outside of the executive mansion. As for a description of the President's condition, I was told that the President was "progressing," and that each week saw some improvement.

Inquiring whether his rate of recovery was slower than expected, the answer was that Mr. Wilson's convalescence was "encouragingly" good. There still seems to be need for mental and physical rest, but nobody able to guess accurately just how long Mr. Wilson will have to remain in seclusion.

Hope for Desk in Spring.

It is a fact, however, that people around the White House would be disappointed if the President were not back at his desk during the spring months.

No specialists have lately visited the White House. Two of them happened to be in town, each on a different errand, about three weeks ago, and they dropped in for a social call and not a medical examination.

That means the President's case is no longer regarded as complicated or doubtful, but that a course of rest treatment has been prescribed, in which medical attention is not such an important factor.

The President is physically restless. He wants to do more work than he should. He keeps in close touch with Secretary Tumulty, either by telephone or personal conference.

To relieve the monotony of the White House, the President's house, which has installed a moving picture machine and screen in the big east room, the handsome room of crystal chandeliers, polished floors, gilded piano and ornamental vases, in which room ceremonies such as the presentation of distinguished foreigners and official receptions and other functions of social brilliance have been held in the past.

There sits the President nowadays, surrounded by members of his family, watching the antics of the slapstick comedian as well as the dramatic episodes of film life—a diversion which the American public enjoys in crowded theaters, but which Mr. Wilson, in the solitude of the White House, can have at any time he waves the presidential wand.

The President is susceptible to colds and his physician has had to be very careful about bundling Mr. Wilson up when he went outdoors. The White House is not such an easy place to keep in an even temperature, which is one reason why the President has had to be kept on the upper floors of the Executive mansion most of the time before an open fireplace.

Watching Big Questions.

It can hardly be said that official business does not reach Mr. Wilson when it should. There are numerous questions which must necessarily be resolved by Cabinet officers on their own responsibility but, when it comes to the treaty controversy and matters of appointment to high offices, Mr. Wilson is personally occupied with them.

He gets daily reports from Senator Hitchcock and a resume of what is happening in the political world from his private secretary, so he manages to keep informed. It is a surprising confinement to Woodrow Wilson, who has kept Washington on the jump for the last seven years in

BANKER WHOSE SUICIDE REVEALED EMBEZZLEMENT

ABRAHAM LINCOLN RUDIFY

$500,000 ON DEPOSIT IN HARRISONVILLE BANK

Institution Not Expected to Be Wrecked by Defalcations of President.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

HARRISONVILLE, Mo., Feb. 6.—Calculating the total of the forged securities in the Bank of Harrisonville is taking all the time of James T. Duncan, State bank examiner, and he does not know today when he will complete the task.

The bank has 1100 depositors and about $500,000 on deposit. It is confidently believed that the defalcations of Abraham Lincoln Rudify, the president of the institution who killed himself in a Kansas City hotel after confessing in letters that he had forged notes to obtain money with which to speculate in oil and leases, would not wreck the institution.

It probably will be next week before the audit of the books is completed, according to Duncan, who added that it had not been decided whether the bank would be reorganized or the assets liquidated. "When you can't get credit there is no use to live longer," was a part of the confession written by Rudify. The complete letter will be given out later, friends of the dead banker said.

The confession admitted forgeries totaling more than $40,000, but officials of the bank say the shortage may reach $100,000. "Townpeople regarded Rudify as a man of great vision and public spirit. There is little ill feeling among those who may lose over his embezzlements. Many business men said Rudify had confidence in them instead of killing himself. The shortages would have been speedily removed."

WIFE OF "TIN PLATE KING" TO NAME CO-RESPONDENTS

Mrs. Margaret C. Reid Asks Court to Frame Issues for Divorce Suit—Hearing Monday.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Mrs. Margaret C. Reid, who is suing Daniel G. Reid, "tin plate king," for divorce, yesterday asked the Supreme Court to frame the issues to be presented to the jury in the trial of her husband's action for divorce and in her own suit. Hearing on the application will be held on Monday, when it is expected that counsel for Mrs. Reid will divulge the names of the co-respondents in the suit. There are said to include the names of several women prominent in theatrical circles.

Mrs. Reid's action for divorce was begun last October, in answer to her husband's suit, filed in May. Reid accused her of misconduct with Sampson Tchernoff, a former Captain in the Russian army, now an artist here. The latter has filed a notice of appearance in Reid's suit, and will deny Reid's charge.

ALDERMEN VOTE TO ALLOW SMOKING AT REAR OF CARS

Amended Measure Effective When Weather Permits Windows to Be Open.

The Board of Aldermen, with most of its members smoking at the time, last evening amended the street car anti-smoking bill so as to permit smoking on the three rear seats in cars, at times when the weather makes the opening of the windows permissible. In practice, this would probably include rear platforms.

The bill, as originally presented by Alderman Udel, prohibited all smoking in cars and buses. The amendment was offered by Wyrick, and was attached to the bill without opposition. The amended bill is expected to pass.

A pace reminiscent of his arch-political foe, Theodore Roosevelt.

But while it is true of Washington always that the pace of the Government is set by its chief executive, the extraordinary nature of the problems confronting the Government has impressed upon observers the truth of that phrase in Mr. Wilson's speech accepting the Democratic nomination in 1912, wherein he remarked, in another connection, but with a forcefulness equally true today, that "there is no indispensable man."

MORE EVIDENCE OF BANK ACCOUNTS IN NEWBERRY TRIAL

Witnesses Also Connect Nominating Petitions for Helme With Campaign of Opponent.

STENOGRAPHER TELLS OF WORK IN RACE

Testifies to Sending Telegram to Newberry Reading: "Don't Worry; Everything Is All Right."

By the Associated Press.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Feb. 6.—Another bank account of Charles Floyd was described in the Newberry election conspiracy trial and the circulation of nominating petitions for James W. Helme in the Democratic primary was connected with the local Newberry campaign.

In addition there was evidence regarding the activities of Paul King in his tours of the State, the work of several field agents was detailed by witnesses and the fact that Frederick Cody of New York was a frequent hotel guest in Detroit was proved by hotel registers and departure sheets.

The defense conceded that Cody made many trips to Detroit and maintained that the testimony was valuable in the way of proving conspiracy because the members of his family resided in that city.

Testimony of Bank Accounts.

The banking evidence came from an official of the Old National Bank of Grand Rapids, who showed deposits to the credit of Floyd of more than $4900 in the five months of the primary campaign, but on cross-examination the defense brought out that in the preceding five months he deposited more than $5000 in the same account. The court indicated that the testimony on this and on the account described yesterday which Floyd had in another local bank would be stricken out later unless the prosecution shows a connection between them and Floyd's duties as head of the Grand Rapids center of the Newberry campaign.

The Helme testimony came from Thomas J. Whiting, formerly of Grand Rapids but now a resident of North Carolina. He swore that Geo. W. Welsh, State Representative from Grand Rapids and a defendant in the case, hired him at $5 a day and expenses to circulate Helme nominating petitions in this and surrounding towns. He said he worked six days at this bank.

Tells of $400 in Envelope.

John E. Kern of Midland, who testified that he was secretary of his county Newberry committee, but never learned who was chairman, told of picking up an envelope laid beside him in the office of Paul King in Detroit headquarters. He said he opened it on the train and found in it $400. Of it he used about $55 for campaign expenses, he said, and sent the rest back to Detroit, addressing it to B. Frank Emery. Emery's name was brought into the testimony also as having carried along money to a stenographer.

The question of whether the Newberry senatorial committee went out of business after the Aug. 27 primary dropped up again while James E. Dillon, chairman of the Isoco County organization, was testifying. He said on direct examination that he communicated with and did not speak for the committee after that date. On cross-examination he was allowed to state that he knew the State Central Committee had charge of the Newberry campaign on indirect questioning.

Girl Tells of Telegram.

Pearl Gilbert, secretary to Congressman Gilbert O. Currie, testified at the start of today's session. She told of being hired by Paul King and being paid $50 a week by B. Frank Emery.

She said from late in June, 1918, to August she worked at the home of Fred C. Martindale writing Newberry campaign letters. Miss Gilbert remembered once calling Fred C. Martindale on long distance telephone for King at some time after the August 27 primary.

Next she remembered of a telegram to Newberry, the subject of which was:

"Don't worry, everything is all right."

She was not cross-examined.

CITY MUST SEND TUBERCULAR PATIENTS TO MOUNT VERNON

Supreme Court Orders Comptroller Not to Certify All Who Comply With Statutes.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 6.—The Supreme Court today ordered Comptroller Nolte of St. Louis to certify to the State Tubercular Sanatorium at Mount Vernon all city patients who comply with the statutes.

The Fifth General Assembly passed a law, permitting tubercular patients in St. Louis to be sent to Mount Vernon for treatment at the expense of the city upon a proper showing. Nolte refused to certify the accounts of city patients at Mount Vernon on the ground that the city could treat them in its own (Koch) hospital at less expense. The Court issued a temporary writ of mandamus, to bring the case up for hearing. The writ was made permanent by the court order today.

$500 FINE FOR SALE OF 130 CASES OF BEER

Prosecution Recommends Clemency on Ground of Information Given by Club Manager.

Joseph Loeffler, manager of the Edrus Club at the St. Charles and Natural Bridge roads, St. Louis County, pleaded guilty in the United States District Court here today on a charge of having sold 130 cases of beer, for which he said he received $3.70 a case, in violation of constitutional prohibition. Judge Paris fined him $500.

A raid was made on the club yesterday on information given to the police by George Robben, a chauffeur, who was arrested early yesterday while delivering the beer in the rear of Charles Albrecht's former saloon, 108 North Fourteenth street.

Policemen and revenue agents who raided the club reported they found 145 cases of beer and nine cases of whisky and wine.

After Loeffler had pleaded guilty, Assistant District Attorney Whaley recommended clemency, saying Loeffler had admitted his guilt and had given information which will be valuable to the Government in prosecuting the purchaser of the beer.

Albrecht, at whose place the beer was delivered, is held for the Federal authorities.

Judge Paris remarked that the $500 fine which he had been imposing did not seem to stop the offense, and that he might have to make the penalty more severe if matters did not improve.

He imposed fines of $100 each on Joseph Cameron, who was arrested at Union Station last Tuesday when on his way to Texas while in charge of a grip containing 20 pints of whisky, and Joseph McFarland, a Jefferson-Hotel bellman, who pleaded guilty to selling a pint of whisky to a Federal agent last October, in violation of the war-time act.

The exonerating circumstance in Cameron's case was his plea that the grip belonged to another traveler, a story which the judge so soundly rebuffed that it was permitted to alleviate the sentence. McFarland said he got the whisky for the revenue officer when the latter professed to be sick and that it was from his own private stock.

WOMAN PAYS FOR SCRIPTURE QUOTATIONS ON BILLBOARDS

Sends Cash With Order for Large Posters in 100 Localities—Doesn't Give Name.

The display of passages of scripture, of an evangelical character, in street cars has been extended to billboards. Posters nine feet high and 21 feet wide on billboards in 100 localities throughout the city now bear quotations from the Bible.

Today, if Ye Will Hear His Voice, Harden Not Your Hearts.

The St. Louis Poster Advertising Co., which attended to the printing and posting of these bills, received the order, accompanied by cash, from a woman who did not give her name. She said the work was financed by an organization known as the (City) Prayer Community.

The street car placards were paid for by a woman whose name has not been made known. As they are handled by a different company, it is not known whether she was the same person who ordered the bills posted.

Prohibition Will Close St. Louis' Oldest Grocery

David Nicholson Co. Announces Continuance of Business Without Liquor Sales Is Unprofitable.

The David Nicholson Grocer Co., 13 and 15 North Sixth street, the oldest wholesale and retail grocery house in St. Louis, will go out of business on or soon after March 31, according to an announcement made today by its vice president, Joseph Little, who says prohibition has made its continuance unprofitable.

The year of the firm's establishment, 1843, is a familiar byword to St. Louis. The date was used as a name for the company's leading brand of whisky and it appeared on all its wagons and in its advertisements.

Little, who has been an officer of the company 38 years, today said that before the advent of prohibition two-thirds of its annual business of $2,000,000 consisted of liquor sales.

300 Barrels in Bond.

In the last year, owing to wartime prohibition, which went into effect July 1, the business dropped to $1,500,000. For many years the company had made a specialty of selling fine liquors not only to hotels and saloons but to individual customers for use in their homes. A large portion of the stock was imported whiskies, brandies, wines and cordials.

The only liquor now possessed by the company is 300 barrels of domestic whisky in bond in Kentucky awaiting sale for medicinal purposes. For this use it will bring about $50 a barrel of 50 gallons. Two years ago it was worth $150 a barrel. Records preserved by the company show that in 1843 whisky sold in St. Louis at 20 cents a gallon retail, and rum at 65 cents a gallon.

"After July 1 we knew we should soon have to go out of business," said Little. "We have a stock amounting to about $125,000 which is going to large and small consumers."

Founder Died in 1880.

The Nicholson business was established as the firm of Strachan & Nicholson. David Nicholson Sr., one of the founders, died in 1880 and control was taken over by his son, David, who died in 1912. The business was incorporated in 1906 with a capital stock of $500,000.

Nelson Nicholson Tracy of 6640 Waterman avenue, grandson of the founder, is now president of the company. His mother, Mrs. Margaret Tracy, who lives with him, is a director of the company and has a large interest in it.

When David Nicholson and William Strachan went into business together their first quarters were in a one and one-half story building at the northeast corner of Fourth and Market streets. The population of the city was 25,000 and Eighteenth street was the Western boundary, the northern limits being at Bremen avenue and the Southern at Arsenal street. There were only three public schools.

Long Sole Proprietor.

Strachan did not remain in the business long. He entered it only as a guarantor and invested no cash in it. Nicholson, a native of Scotland, was for many years the sole proprietor. By 1858 he had so developed it that it was called the largest grocery house in the United States. Nicholson's original quarters and moved into a four-story building near Broadway and Market street. In 1870 it moved into a five-story building on its present site. This building was burned in 1900 after which the company's present home was erected.

The business has been about the same in volume for the last 25 years, Little said, always providing employment for about 50 persons. In point of service Little is the second oldest, his record of service being surpassed only by that of Campbell McFarlane, the company's Missouri salesman, who has been with it 51 years.

Specializing in the finest imported and domestic products, Nicholson's has been widely known among St. Louisans as the place for delicacies not always obtainable elsewhere. Rare and, for America, unusual liquors were in stock there. Vodka, the famous Russian liquor, manufacture of which was stopped as a military measure early in the world war, was in stock until last May.

Oen, a Spanish drink resembling anisette cordial, and sapine, a French liquor, were other unusual things. Large amounts of imported whisky were handled, Scotch being the most popular. The last shipment from Germany, chiefly Rhine wines, was received late in 1916.

Sales Book Offers Comparison.

A Nicholson sales book of 1843 preserved by the Missouri Historical Society affords interesting comparisons of prices then and now. Sugar then was 11 1/2 cents a pound. Now it is 22 cents. White potatoes sold at 40 cents a bushel and sweet potatoes at 37 1/2 cents. They are now, respectively, $3.60 and $3.35 a bushel.

Coffee costs 55 cents a pound now, compared to 8 1/2 cents then. Flour has increased in the 77 years from $4.25 a barrel to about $15. Bacon now costs 55 cents a pound and ham 40 cents, but St. Louisans of 1843 obtained these for 8 1/2 and 5 1/2 cents respectively.

Frying was considerably cheaper then, lard costing 4 1/2 cents a pound, compared with 30 cents now.

The David Nicholson Grocer Co. will continue in existence only as a financial corporation. It holds the Maryville (Mo.) Electric Light and Power Co., and Little will manage this. Tracy, who is 34 years old, will retire.

TRIAL BY NEUTRAL COURT SUGGESTED BY BERLIN PAPER

Swiss Have Declared Readiness to Arrange Such a Tribunal for Men Wanted, It Is Asserted.

OFFICERS UNITE TO FIGHT ALLIED DEMAND

'Only Did Duty to Fatherland,' Says Von Buelow, Who Won't Yield to 'Ignominy' of Extradition.

PARIS, Feb. 6.—The allied Premier, at his meeting in London, next week, are expected to examine minutely the question of the extradition of the Germans accused of war crimes and the consequences of German resistance to the allied demands.

By the Associated Press.

BERLIN, Feb. 6.—The German Government probably will be willing to surrender its nationals charged with war crimes to be tried by a neutral tribunal, if the Entente will agree, says the National Zeitung.

The Swiss Government, the newspaper says, has declared its readiness to arrange such a tribunal.

Field Marshal von Buelow told the Lokal Anzeiger today that Germans whose names are on the list of those whose extradition is demanded by the allies "only did their duty to the fatherland" and that extradition was ignominy to which no German would voluntarily submit.

The Field Marshal declared he would never place himself at the disposal of the Entente nations and expressed the belief that most of the commanders named in the allied list would take the same view.

It is understood that meetings of army and navy commanders were held on Jan. 7, and it was unanimously concluded that evasion of the extradition clause of the Versailles treaty was entirely compatible with German honor and that no one must voluntarily surrender.

Legal objections should be lodged against orders for the arrest of any of the commanders, it was decided at these meetings.

Government Proclamation. The Government has issued to the press a proclamation reiterating its opposition to the extradition demand, and declaring it cannot be fulfilled by any other Government.

Even if the present Government is forced to give way to a new Cabinet composed of independent Socialists or other factions, the same situation will prevail, it is said.

The covering note and the official list have not been received here and the unofficial list which was sent to Berlin does not afford a basis for even superficial consideration of the offenses charged against the listed men, it is held.

Considering Assembly Call. Premier Bauer's conference with party leaders tomorrow probably will determine whether the National Assembly will be called to consider the extradition situation.

Persons well informed deny the existence of a governmental crisis and the Prussian Cabinet has unanimously endorsed the National Assembly's attitude, which is unaltered.

This may be regarded as a symptom of the spirit in which the Entente demands are being met, all prominent politicians condemning the allied edict.

One of the most surprised men in Berlin was Count von Bernstorff, former Ambassador to the United States, who, it is said, is desired by the allies for his alleged connection with Bolo Panha.

The Count, despite his surprise, seemed to be mildly amused. He declared that he was not afraid to face trial. He added that he was ready to go if wanted and that he might even put the allies in a quandary if they attempted to prosecute him.

Others Allies Want. Among those demanded by the allies for extradition are Herr Auer, former Bavarian Minister of the Interior; Admiral von Muelner, former Chief of the Naval Staff; Herr von Roedig, a prominent manufacturer; Gen. von Margen, Gen. von Hausen, former Commander of the Second or Saxon Army; Baron von Houne, former Interior Minister; and General von Below, former Military Commander of Antwerp.

These two last named are demanded by Belgium. Lieutenant-General Hellingrath, Inspector of German Military Roads, is wanted by France, and Von Auler, a prominent manufacturer, is sought by Great Britain.

The deliberations of the Cabinet Wednesday night were wholly informal, as neither a verified list of the men wanted by the allies nor the covering note were at its disposal.

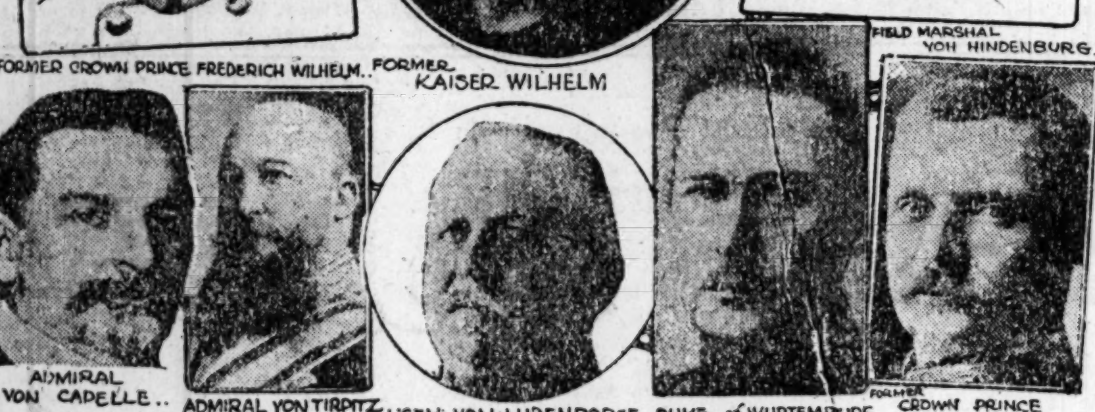

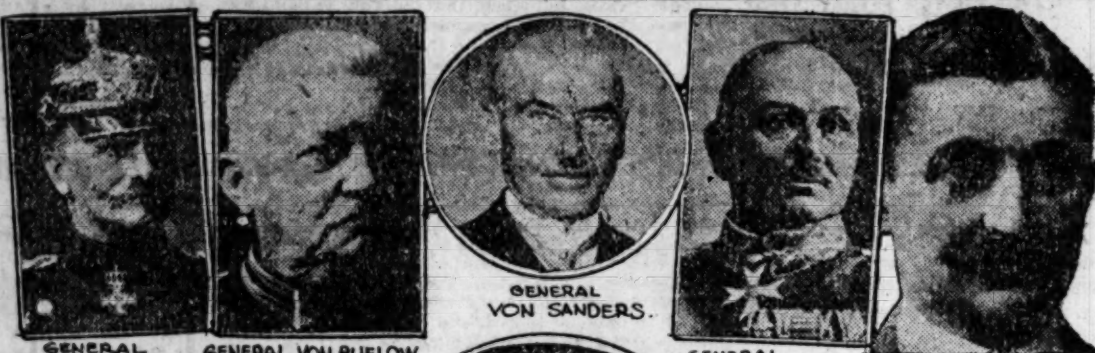

The list received in Berlin contains approximately 900 names. Fully eight per cent of the men are unknown even to the general public in Germany.

Family transmission resulted in gross misspelling and the omission of initials and other marks of identification to indicate the respective persons meant, while names like Mueller and Schmidt recur a score of times.

France and Belgium each demand the surrender of 334 men; England 47, Poland 57, Rumania 41, Serbia 49 and Italy 25.

One Woman in List. There is one woman on the list.

German Military and Naval Leaders Whose Extradition for Trial Is Demanded by Allies

Fraulein Scheiner, who is wanted for alleged mistreatment of French women at a German concentration camp.

Unless the covering note is accompanied by additional documentary evidence or specific indictments, the work of tabulating the list for the purpose of identifying the men will consume several days.

Field Marshal von Mackensen is wanted by Serbia and Rumania, and Gen. Count Sixt von Arnim by England. The U-boat commander Depierre (7) is demanded by Italy, as are also Capt. Valentiner and Robert Marant, who operated in the Mediterranean.

Both France and Belgium demand Field Marshal von Hindenburg, but only the former wants Gen. Ludendorff, former First Quartermaster of the German Army, and Dr. von Bethmann-Holweg, former Imperial Chancellor. Admiral von Tirpitz is on both the Belgian and English lists.

The mangled spelling of numerous names indicates that a number of men well known in France and Germany also are on the list. These names could not be verified, although the erroneous transmission permits of the conclusion that Dr. Karl Helfferich, former Minister of Finance, and Max Warburg, the banker, are among those charged, in addition to other prominent civilians.

Why Auer Is Wanted. According to the newspapers, Herr Auer, who was shot in a session of the Bavarian Diet, in February of 1919, and who has not yet completely recovered from his wound, probably is wanted by France, in connection with the destruction or removal of industrial plants.

Voerwaerts, the Socialist organ, however, says Herr Auer was placed on the list of persons desired owing to secret denunciations by independent communists and Bavarian opponents, who hold him responsible for the death of former Premier Eisner, who was assassinated at the same time Auer was shot. France, according to the newspaper, also demands Major-General Reinhardt, former Prussian Minister of War, who served against France.

The list includes also Inspector Steinmetz of the Berlin police, who was head of the Police Department at Antwerp and field police and soldiers who participated in the proceedings against Edith Cavell, the English nurse, who was executed. It also contains the names of several officers whose deaths have been announced, among them Gen. Fritz von Bulow, Commander of the First Army in 1915, who is demanded by France, and Gen. Otto von Below, who was wanted by Italy.

'Le Diable de Metz' Dead. France demands the turning over to her of the old Field Marshal Count von Haeseler, who stayed at the headquarters of the German Crown Prince as an observer of the war. Concerning this soldier, the Zeitung Amittage says:

"It is unthinkable that the French War Ministry failed to hear last year of the death of 'Le Diable de Metz,' once so feared by them." (Haeseler's death was reported in October, 1919.)

Admiral Oscar von Ingenohl, former commander of the German high sea fleet, who is demanded by Great Britain, and Capt. Von der Planitz, formerly aid de camp to the German Crown Prince, who is wanted by Belgium, both are dead. (Von der Planitz is reported to have been killed in battle in October, 1916.)

'Muelers' Are Worried. The Admiralty up to the present has been unable to identify 23 U-boat commanders on the unofficial list of those demanded. The Admiralty has been overwhelmed with callers answering to names such as "Mr. Mueller" who clamored to know whether they were on the list.

ARTICLES TAKEN FROM 3 CHURCHES FOUND

Discovered in Room of Man Caught by Priest When Tampering With Poor Box.

Articles identified as having been stolen from three other churches have been found in the room at 3636 Page boulevard of Vaclav Krejci, 35 years old, a Bohemian, who was caught Tuesday tampering with the poor box in the Church of Our Lady of Good Counsel, Eleventh and Deshtrah streets, by a home-made burglar alarm which sounded in the study of the pastor, the Rev. Father Joseph R. Watson.

"I am an artist, not a burglar," Krejci told the police today. He said that he was a graduate of Prague University. He speaks English excellently. Two trunks in his room were full of works such as an artist would value. They also were works such as often are found in churches.

Two Motion Picture Machines. In his room also were two motion picture machines, one of which has been identified as having been stolen from the King's highway Presbyterian Church, King's highway and Cabanne avenue, and the other as having been stolen from Temple Shaare Emeth, Vandeventer avenue and Lindell boulevard. A screw driver and wrench found in his possession, when he was captured in the Church of Our Lady of Good Counsel, was identified as having been the property of Holy Trinity Catholic Church, Fourteenth and Mallinckrodt streets.

The trunks were filled with silk and velvet robes and altar covers, oil paintings, some of Biblical subjects, photographs of art collections in various parts of the world, a painting outfit, odds and ends of works of art. Books in the trunks included a complete Shakespeare in 13 volumes.

More Tools in Room. More tools were found in the room. Among them was a contrivance known to the police as a "come-along," which is used by burglars to pull combination locks out of safes. Krejci declared it to be an attachment he was using in connection with an invention for appliance to farm tractors. A revolver and a flashlight also were found.

Among his letters was one indicating that he had been commissioned in 1918 to sell Liberty Bonds among the Bohemians of Oklahoma and another indicating that he had been commissioned in 1917 to remove certain stains from the new capitol in Jefferson City.

SALES AT FUR EXCHANGE MAY REACH $1,700,000

Chinchillas and Japanese and Russian Sables Expected to Bring High Prices Tomorrow.

It was estimated that today's sales at the International Fur Exchange would reach $1,700,000, or $84,000 higher than the total yesterday. Tomorrow, it was predicted, will be a banner day as the chief feature will be the disposition of valuable chinchillas and Japanese and Russian sables.

Anticipating that fur coats will be in great demand again next winter known to the trade as Coney, marked this morning's session. About 30,000 of the skins brought approximately $100,000. Coney are used in the manufacture of coats in imitation of other furs. They were disposed of in lots of a dozen, each lot bringing from $20 to $40. The lower grade represented an increase in price of from 25 to 35 per cent over the price paid last September, and the higher grades were sold at from 60 to 65 per cent higher than in 1919.

The heavy demand for rabbit skins, as a seal substitute, it was said, was due to the exceptionally high prices of muskrat, and the higher grades were the most popular imitation of seal.

FOUR MEN ROB TAXI DRIVER OF CAR AND MONEY

John Huff, Chauffeur, Held Up by His Passengers, Relieved of $6 and Told to "Beat It."

Detectives investigating a hold-up last night, in which a taxicab chauffeur was robbed of $6 and his car, arrested John P. O'Connor, of 5544 A Cote Brillante avenue, secretary and treasurer of the Street Car Men's Union, when they learned that he had been in the taxicab a short time before the robbery.

John Huff, 3113 North Twentieth street, a chauffeur employed by Cathart Brothers, who have a taxi stand at 5177 Easton avenue, reported that he responded to a telephone order for a closed car at 2:20 p. m., and drove to a former saloon at Union boulevard and Easton avenue where he picked up five men.

He was directed to drive to Hamilton and Easton avenues, where his passengers entered a soft drink establishment and remained a few minutes. When they came to the door of the men left the taxicab and said that he would walk to his home.

The four men got into the taxi and ordered Huff to take them to Vandeventer and Finney avenues.

At a point on Finney, about a half block west of Vandeventer, the men ordered Huff to stop, and, drawing revolvers, commanded him to hand over his money. He gave them $3, which they had paid him as a deposit on the price of the trip, and $3 of his own money. They then told him to "beat it" and drove away in his car.

Taking up the trail of the man who had separated from his companions at Hamilton and Easton avenues, detectives at midnight went to the home of O'Connor and arrested him. He was taken to the Police Station, where he readily admitted having been with the four men who later figured in the robbery, but denied knowing that they had intended to hold up the chauffeur.

Couldn't Recall Names. He said that he had a speaking acquaintance with one of the men and met him last night at Grand avenue and Olive street. He could not recall the man's name, he said, or the names of the other three, although he was introduced to them. They went to the former saloon at Union boulevard and Easton avenue, he said, and when he told them not to go home one of them suggested that he wait until they called a taxi and they would take him to his destination.

O'Connor said that he would make an effort to find the man to whom he was introduced and when Huff verified his story that he had left the others before the robbery was committed, he was released.

The taxi was found at 2 o'clock this morning in the twenty-third and Biddle streets, where it had been abandoned after the gasoline was used up.

Grocery Chauffeur Robbed of $35. Richard Conway, 19 years old, 1449 Hodgson avenue, a chauffeur for Sam Rifkin, a grocer, of 5705 Delmar boulevard, told the police that when he was delivering orders at Clemens and Westgate avenues at 6:30 p. m., two men stopped him and ordered him to get into the back of his truck. They took $35 of Rifkin's money from him, he said, and then commanded him to drive to a nearby alley where they tied him, hands and feet, with a clothesline to the steering wheel and escaped. He said that he was released a few minutes later by another chauffeur whose name or address he failed to get. When it was found that Conway had no chauffeur's license the police ordered him held for further investigation of his story.

Two men with checkered handkerchiefs over the lower part of their faces held up Abe Multin in his butcher shop, 1332 North Garrison avenue, 10:30 p. m. and took $253 from the cash register. They then locked Multin in the refrigerator, where he remained for five minutes until a customer entered and released him.

Edward J. Boland, a grocer at 5000 Northland avenue, was held up in his store by three men at 9 p. m. One of the robbers called for cigarettes and when the proprietor was waiting on him the other two drew revolvers and ordered Boland to throw up his hands. The robbers took $17 from the cash register and escaped.

$300 FINE FOR AGGOSTING GIRL

Married Man Admits Speaking to Stenographer's Street.

Edward F. Ledwidge of 3532 Terrace avenue, 32 years old and married, traffic manager for the Walsh Fire Clay Products Co., was fined $300 and costs in Police Court today for having accosted a girl, Grace, 21, a stenographer, of 2915 Barrett avenue, on Glasgow avenue, near Kosciuszko avenue, last Friday night.

Miss McGrath testified that Ledwidge accosted her as she was walking alone the street, saying, "Little girl, don't you want to go downtown with me," and adding an offensive suggestion. Ledwidge admitted this. Judge Mix fined him $300, but upon discovering that the maximum fine for "moleching" is $25, altered the fine to comply with this provision.

MAYOR TO NAME COMMITTEE TO WORK FOR BONDS

Signs Bill Passed by Aldermen Calling Election May 11, to Vote on $24,000,000 Municipal Issue.

vic, mercantile, industrial and neighborhood organizations are requested, in an announcement made by Mayor Kiel today, to name representatives on a campaign committee which is to work for the passage of the $24,000,000 bond issue at a special election of May 11 next. The ordinance, which is to be passed and fixing the 13 tend bond issue, was passed at yesterday's special session of the Board of Aldermen.

Two-thirds of the votes cast at the special election will be required to pass the bond issue, and the Mayor would name, on the campaign committee, the persons selected by the various organizations. He plans to ask the individuals and organizations to work for these particular items of the bond issue, which they are most familiar, or in which they are especially interested.

Thus, the municipal athletic associations would campaign for the park items, and business organizations for the terminal and bridge bond items. The items will be voted upon separately.

The first organization which has announced the choice of a representative to the campaign committee, or, is the Manufacturers' Association. The Executive Committee of the Association, meeting at the Noonday Club yesterday, chose Richard Moore, manager of the Benjamin Moore Paint Co., and former president of the association, as its representative in promoting the bond issue campaign.

STATE INCOME TAX RETURNS MUST BE FILED BY MARCH 1

Fine Is Penalty for Failure to Comply With Law—Payment Must Be Made by June.

State income tax returns must be made to Assessor Wolbrink on or before March 1. Penalty for failure to comply is a fine of $500 in the case of individuals and a fine of $5000 for corporations.

The tax must be paid to Collector Koehn by June 1, and delinquencies will be punishable by an assessment of one per cent of the amount of the taxes for every month that payment is overdue.

There is no provision in the State law such as there is in the Federal law, for the payment of State income taxes in quarterly installments. The whole amount, equivalent to 1 1/2 per cent of income above exemption, must be paid at one time.

Married men are exempt up to $2000 a year, with an additional $200 allowed for each dependent child. Single men are exempt up to $1000.

Collector Koehn said today that he would apply a liberal interpretation to the penalty provision in the law governing collection of the income tax because, he said, he did not believe that the Assessor would be able to have all the bills for collection ready by May 1, as required by law. If any taxpayer has a reasonable excuse for failing to pay in the specified time he will be dealt with leniently, Koehn said, although the Collector has no authority to waive the provisions of the law.

MOTHER ENTITLED TO HER CHILD, COURT SAYS

Withholding for Non-Payment of Board 'High Handed Business,' Judge Shields Declares.

During a hearing yesterday of a petition of Mrs. Constance Martin of 4121 Maryland avenue to recover custody of her son, Earl, 7 years old, whom she placed in an institution when he was 2 months old, testimony was given that the child was withheld from the mother because she could not make up arrears in its board. This caused Circuit Judge Shields to declare:

"That is a high-handed piece of work, and ought not to be tolerated."

Turning to the defendant, Mrs. T. R. Ayars, 5210 Washington boulevard, president of the Christian Women's Benevolent Association, he inquired:

"On what theory does the institution retain custody because of non-payment of board?"

Mrs. Ayars replied that counsel had advised her that when a parent abandons a child for two years or more, she loses control of the child.

Error in Naming Defendant. However, the case against Mrs. Ayars was dismissed, it appearing that an error was made in naming her as defendant. The baby was placed in the Mothers' and Babies' Home in 1913 and Mrs. Ayars testified that though the home is affiliated with the association of which she is head, she had had no active part in its management, but was only chairman of the Admissions Committee.

"It is a serious matter for a child to be kidnapped," the judge said. "Mrs. Martin is entitled to the custody of her child, but has filed her suit against the wrong person."

Mrs. Martin's attorney announced his intention to at once file suit against the proper parties.

Testimony Causing Comment. The testimony that prompted Judge Shields' comment was that of Mrs. Gertrude Swinney, 4881A Kennerly avenue, who declared that she had talked several times with Mrs. Ayars in 1916 in an effort to obtain Mrs. Martin's son for her. She declared that Mrs. Ayars told her that the mother owed $65 for the child's board and that the board of the institution subsequently refused to surrender the child. A letter signed with Mrs. Ayars' name stated that Mrs. Martin could come to the home and assist with sewing and other work if she did not have money to pay the board.

Mrs. Ayars said that the only conversation she had had concerning the child's board was to say that an amount once offered was insufficient. She said that the child was in the home for over two years without any board having been paid. She said that Mrs. Martin began taking great interest in the child after she learned that he had gone somewhere else. Mrs. Martin does not know the whereabouts of the child. Mrs. Ayars did not state its whereabouts.

40-STORY BUILDING TO REPLACE NEW YORK HERALD STRUCTURE

"Monumental Design" Planned by Owners of Property Purchased 70 Years Ago for $2500.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—A 40-story commercial building of "monumental design" will replace the former home of the New York Herald, in Herald Square, if tentative plans made public today materialize. The name of the prospective purchaser of the property has not been given out.

The Herald Building, of quaint Italian renaissance architecture with its famous chimneys, has long been one of the show places of New York.

The property, which is now owned by the Manice estate, is assessed for taxes at $2,342,000 for the land alone, and at $2,500,000 with the building. The land was purchased 70 years ago for $2500. When the Herald and Evening Telegram were purchased recently by Frank A. Munsey, he assumed the lease of the building which has 15 months to run.

PRINCE OF WALES ENJOYS "ROBBER" DANCES IN LONDON

Waltzes and Fox-Trots With 30 Partners Instead of Customary Three or Four.

By the Associated Press. LONDON, Feb. 6.—"Robber" or "Paul Jones" dances are being introduced in some West End clubs and dancing halls since the Prince of Wales returned from the United States, where he gave the form of dance royal approval by waltzing, one-stepping and fox-trotting with no less than 60 partners at one ball. As the name indicates, in "robber" dances, male members of the party who happen to be without partners are privileged to "cut in" on any of the more fortunate men who have partners.

In England it has been the custom for dancers to have not more than three or four partners during an evening—and more frequently only one. But Londoners are trying out the American idea and seem to like it.

CAPTURED AFTER THIRD ESCAPE Youth, Sentenced to Reform School, Recaptured on East Side.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—The police obtained yesterday what they consider a definite clue which will clear up the mystery of the brutal assault and murder of Ream Constance Hoxie, the 17-year-old girl found slain in her father's apartment at 72 West Eighty-ninth street, Monday.

By process of elimination detectives on the case have reached a point where all their efforts are centered in locating an individual who disappeared just after the body of the girl was found. The police say their evidence indicates he is the slayer of the young music student.

They have told of a mysterious boarder who has been missing since the crime was discovered. In most cases, the descriptions given by the women, tally with that given by Mrs. O'Brien, the landlady of the caller at the Hoxie apartment the day the girl was killed. The man evidently rented several rooms in the immediate neighborhood and no one has been found by the detectives who saw him after the murder. The evidence that might connect him with the murder is being withheld by the police.

A man with a two days' growth of beard was taken in custody by detectives at Coney Island yesterday. His general appearance answers the description of the man sought as the slayer of Miss Hoxie. After being brought to Manhattan and questioned in the office of District Attorney Swann he was released. The suspect proved he was in Coney Island when the girl was killed.

Brother Taken From Family. It became known yesterday that Ralph Hoxie, a 10-year-old brother of the dead girl, was committed to the care of the Protestant Big Brothers by Justice Levy early last June. According to the records Louis Falk of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, after investigating the case, reported that the boy was being treated cruelly by his parents and that his general welfare was being neglected.

He is now being cared for at the Goodwill Farm in the upper part of the State. In his report Falk said Mrs. Hoxie was a concert hall singer and that she was in the habit of taking her stepdaughter, Ream Constance, with her to Coney Island when she went to sing. Mr. and Mrs. Hoxie in the children's court denied they had ever struck Ralph, but Judge Levy adjudged the lad to be without a proper guardian.

PROHIBITION AND SIMS TOPICS AT BANQUET

Gov. Edwards Says People Must Vote on Liquor Issue—Admiral's Name Hissed.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Prohibition and Sims-Daniels controversy were injected into the testimonial dinner given last night to Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, at which Secretary Daniels was the principal speaker. One thousand invitations had been issued to the banquet, which was attended by prominent Democrats from all parts of the country.

The prohibition issue was brought into the proceedings by Gov. Edwards of New Jersey and Smith of New York, and was greeted with obviously mingled feelings by the diners.

The New Jersey executive was given a striking ovation when he entered the dining hall. He declared that a great issue had emerged from the past, "the issue of state rights and personal liberty." He asserted that this issue must be decided by the people next November.

The toastmaster, calling upon Gov.
Edwards, said:

"Secretary Daniels spoke of the great barrage laid across the North Sea. I have just received a memorandum which shows that the only American officer who opposed the laying of that barrage was Admiral Sims." He said this barrage defeated submarine warfare.

The mention of the Admiral's name was the signal for considerable hissing and booing from the various parts of the dining hall.

The Misses' Store Announces Complete Surrender To the Fascinating Fashions for Spring

Special
Winter Coats
$18.75 & $24.75

UNUSUALLY fine groups of Winter Coats are marked at two special prices for tomorrow. This will be a good time to buy for next year. The materials are of high-grade quality—and the styles conservative. When you think of buying a Coat at such a low price—the investment for next season is more than worth while.

WOULD you learn of new things? Of Taffeta Frocks, whimsically quaint, of jaunty Toreador boleros, of sash-tied Suits, of flaring polo Coats?
Then you must come to the Misses' Store, where Spring shows her loveliest fashions. The models that are displayed are exclusive creations from American designers, as well as copies from Parisian fashion artists.

Spring Suits

Early in the season it is splendid luck to find such a complete assortment of new Suits as may be seen in the Misses' Store. Tricotine Suits, sporting braid and embroidery, velvet checks, serges and peachbloms make up the dozens of new models. Suits with bolero coats and tasseled sashes are the Suits of the hour. Sizes
14 to 20 years. Prices are $59.75 to $150

Spring Frocks

"Never before," that time-worn phrase, takes on new emphasis when we say that "never before" have Spring Frocks been so charming.
Taffetas quaintly puffed and ruffled and very very youthful—crepe meteoers, sometimes crystal beaded—tricotine, tailored into bolero jacketed Frocks—straightline satins and mignonette crepes are the Frock materials and styles that are favored now. Priced $75 to $225

Most of the Coats Are Sport Models

Coats that are on the polo coat type are the first Coats shown for Spring. They are of camel's hair or Bolivia and are three-quarter or hip length models. They are priced $45 to $175. (Third Floor.)

The Girls' Store Has Crisp New Frocks of Cotton Fabrics

JUST as regularly as the pussy willows put forth their fuzzy little buds, so regularly do schoolgirls appear in fresh, crisp, new wash Dresses.

This new lot which we have just received is very attractive since such likeable materials, colors and styles have been chosen. Gingham, chambrays, crepes, Devonshire voiles and galatea are the materials used.

Sizes 6 to 16 may be found. The prices range from $2.95, $4.95, $6.95 up to $24.25.

The entire stock of Girls' Winter Coats has been greatly reduced in price. They may be secured now from $9.95 to $29.75.

TENOR MURPHY SINGS

INSPIRINGLY AT ODEON

Soloist Delights Morning Choral Audience—Club's Selections Varied.

Lambert Murphy's fine tenor voice, his attractive stage presence, and his refreshingly clear enunciation, made his part in the Morning Choral Club's concert a delight to last night's audience at the Odeon. The pleasing character of his selections added to this happy effect.

Murphy's first number was the florid aria from "Reginella," by Braga. In his second appearance, among five selections, he gave a sensational bit of realism in a portrayal of Cossack horsemanship. In his final group of five songs were two Irish airs, and "Christ in Flanders," by Ward-Stephens, which is not related to Balzac's story of that name, but is an expression of the spiritual phase of the war, ending with the lines:

"In the battle's glare, I saw Christ there,
With the heart of the world in his hands."

Murphy sang two encores after this appearance, one of them the familiar "Absent," beautifully given, and the other "There is No Death," an inspiring lyric for the bereaved.

The Morning Choral made four appearances, its most pleasing selection being Cadman's "Love, Like the Dawn," in its first group. With this were combined two negro spirituals, which were sung sweetly and correctly. Women's voices, however, cannot give these airs to the complete satisfaction of those who have heard them sung by the students of Hampton Institute, or by the naval chorus which was here with the flotilla last spring. The longest of the club's numbers was "The Lake of the Dismal Swamp," which bore out the promise of its name. A combination of Chadwick's "Inconstancy," with the words of a Shakespeare ballad, and Puccini's "Petronella," was much more cheering. The worst "Invictus," in its commonplace musical setting, was the last selection.

Montana Rail Strike Ended. BUTTE, Mont., Feb. 6.—The strike at the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad shops in Deer Lodge, Mont., involving also the electricians employed at the substations, ended when the men at a mass meeting in Deer Lodge voted to return to work at midnight last night.

FOUR KILLED, 7 INJURED IN ROW IN ARKANSAS

Negro Murderer Stands Off Several Hundred Men 3 Hours—Woman Among the Dead.

By the Associated Press.
PINE BLUFF, Ark., Feb. 6.—City Detective C. C. Lynn, Mrs. Sam Soltz and a negro known as "Memphis Slim" were killed and seven persons were wounded, two seriously, last night when George Wicks, negro, after shooting "Memphis Slim" and Lynn, barricaded himself in a house near the heart of the business district and held off a posse of several hundred men for more than three hours.

The negro finally was slain by possumen's bullets after the house had been burned. The body was then dragged through the streets by a mob of men and boys.

The negro killed "Memphis Slim" late in the day. Lynn went to the house to arrest him and was met with the shot which killed him. Possumen were then summoned and peppered the house with rifle and shotgun fire until dark, and then the building was set on fire. Wicks fired several times into the crowd which had gathered. Firing became general and in the shooting seven persons were hit. Then Wicks emerged and was immediately shot down with more than 50 bullets in his body. Mrs. Soltz was hit by a stray bullet and died at a hospital.

TEAM OWNERS INDORSE POLICE

Resolution Follows Order for Inquiry Into Alleged Brutality.

Methods employed by the St. Louis police in handling criminals and persons arrested on suspicion were indorsed in a resolution adopted by the Association of Team and Truck Owners of St. Louis at a meeting last night at the American Annex.

The resolution was adopted following a discussion of the instructions recently given to the grand jury by Circuit Judge Kiene, recommending an investigation of charges of brutal treatment of prisoners by the Police Department. In 1918, the resolution states, members of the association lost $35,000 through thefts without recovering any of the stolen goods, while in 1919 goods valued at $21,550 were stolen and $17,500 worth recovered through the efforts of the police.

FUNDING OF FOREIGN DEBT IS FAVORED

House Committee Indicates Approval Also of Proposal to Defer Interest Payments.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Approval by the House Ways and Means Committee of the proposal to fund $10,000,000 of American loans to foreign countries and to defer collection of interest for not more than three years was said to have been indicated today at an executive session of the committee. Final decision was deferred, however, until next week.

Committeemen said that, while no objection to the plan was voiced, there was a difference of opinion as to the need of legislative authority for the Treasury to fund the debts.

There was little discussion of the exchanging of the demand obligations of the foreign Governments for time obligations, committee members generally holding that such action was contemplated by Congress when it authorized the loans. The funding of the interest for the first three years, however, was the subject of a long debate.

The foreign exchange situation was discussed, and some members expressed alarm that further decline would seriously affect American export trade. Discussion was said to have developed practically unanimous agreement that the foreign countries were unable at present to pay their interest in dollars and it was also agreed that payment of the interest was not needed by the United States at this time.

SEEKS NATURALIZATION, BUT WOULDN'T FIGHT GERMANY

Robert K. Schulz, 22 years old, of 4477 Beck avenue, today filed an application for final naturalization papers, accompanied by an affidavit in which he repeats the statement made in June, 1913, when he withdrew a similar application after he had said he would not fight for the United States against Germany.

In renewing his request for citizenship Schulz in his affidavit says he has not changed his mind and he thus reiterates his preference for Germany: "I consider it absurd for this country to ask or seek to compel me, a German, to take up arms in behalf of the United States against my native country, my fatherland, Germany. I do not think any sane-minded person would fight for any country against his native country. I would consider any man who would do such a thing nothing but a cur."

UNION WAGES 17 PER CENT HIGHER IN 1919 THAN IN 1918

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Union wage scales in the general trades in 1919 averaged 17 per cent higher than in 1918, and 55 per cent higher than in 1913, according to a summary issued today by the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The regular hours of labor per week in 1919 were 5 per cent less than in 1918. The figures apply only to persons employed at time rates, and not to piece workers, and include the bakery, building, stone, metal, mill, woodwork and printing trades, and also chauffeurs and teamsters, freight handlers, laundry workers, theater hands and waiters.

POLICEMEN, CALLED BY PHONE, FIND GARAGE MAN SHOT

Policemen, called by telephone to the Boulevard Garage, 112 North King's highway, at 9 a. m. today, found Frank A. Canedy, 59 years old, the proprietor, in a serious condition from a bullet wound in his jaw, which he had apparently inflicted himself. Canedy, who resides at 5228 Wells avenue with his wife, Etta, was taken to the city hospital.

John Appelgate, an employee at the garage, told the policemen that Canedy was alone in his office when the shot was fired. Appelgate found him standing near a washstand and said that "nobody cared" for him. The bullet passed through his lower lip and into his jaw.

WANTS ALLOWANCE INCREASED

Mrs. Amelia Silverstone, divorced wife of Mark Silverstone, president of the Silverstone Music Co., 1114 Olive street, filed a motion in Circuit Court yesterday asking for an increase in the allowance of $100 a month made by the court for the support of their two children, Julius I, 12 years old, and Mark Edison, 4, when the divorce was granted in October, 1918.

FIVE HURT WHEN CAR HITS AUTO

Dr. Andrew J. Gethinger, 33 years old, of 1115 Mallinckrodt street, and five others with him in his automobile were cut and bruised last night when the machine was overturned and wrecked by Bellefontaine car at Blair and Bremen avenues.

YALE REPORTS YALE STUDENTS ARE HIGHLY INTELLIGENT MEN

Psychological Tests Put the Average Above That of Army Officers.

By the Associated Press. NEW HAVEN, Conn., Feb. 6.—Psychological intelligence tests given the Yale freshman class show that 95.2 per cent of the class received A or B grades, denoting intelligence above the average, it was announced today.

Comparison of these tests with similar ones given in the army show, according to an analysis made at Yale that Yale freshmen are "a highly intelligent group and rate higher as a group than a large sampling of army officers."

The reports point out that 100 per cent of the freshmen exceeded the median in points reached by drafted men; 84 per cent exceeded the score of high school seniors; 69 per cent bettered the freshmen of another university and 50 per cent exceeded the median score of seniors at that other university.

MAN SUING CITY FOR $50,000 APPEARS WITHOUT COUNSEL

Denver Salesman Advised by Court to Get Attorney at Argument on Demurrer.

Edgar S. Tople, a Denver traveling salesman, who is suing the city for $50,000, alleging false incarceration in the city sanitarium April 26, 1918, appeared in the United States District Court without counsel today when a demurrer offered by the city came up for argument.

Associate City Counselor Griffin, arguing the demurrer, said that, even admitting the truth of the allegations in Tople's petition, the city could not be held responsible, as the State Supreme Court had ruled that a city acting in its governmental capacity and for the public could not be sued for damages resulting from such acts.

Tople made a statement to the Court in which he said a private physician and a city physician had caused him to be sent to the sanitarium on the ground that he had paresis, but after remaining there only a few months he was discharged and had since been entirely cured. He asked for five days in which to file a brief. This was granted, the Judge advising him to engage a lawyer to prepare the brief.

LOCKED IN HIS HAT STORE BY TWO MEN WHO ROB HIM

Dealer at 1102 Franklin Is Forced to Give Up $25 and Intruders Then Use Lock of Their Own.

John Brunner was locked in his hat store at 1102 Franklin avenue at 6:30 o'clock last night by two highwaymen after they had robbed him of a $4 hat and $25. They used a lock which they carried along for the purpose.

Brunner was alone in his store when the two men, apparently foreigners, walked in and asked to see a hat, size 8 1/2. After selecting one they gave Brunner a $10 bill and when he was about to make change they covered him with revolvers and ordered him to throw up his hands. After taking their own $10 from Brunner the robbers took $25 from the cash register and backed out. When they closed the front door behind them they threw a bar, used as a night latch, and locked it with a padlock of their own.

Brunner pounded on the door until he attracted the attention of Joseph Geller, 1105 Franklin avenue, who chiseled off the lock and released him.

NEW COUNTY RECORDER WILL NAME DEMOCRATIC DEPUTIES

Tegethoff Also Will Retain Miss Preiss and Offer Position to Widow of Predecessor.

Republican deputies in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of St. Louis County will be replaced by Democrats next month it was announced today by William H. Tegethoff, Democrat, who was appointed Recorder yesterday by Gov. Gardner to succeed Otto J. Preiss, a Republican, who died from pneumonia last Monday.

The Recorder said the present deputies have indicated to him that they desire to remain in office only a month to aid him in familiarizing himself with the office.

Tegethoff said he had decided to appoint J. Ellis Stevens of Clayton as Chief Deputy to begin work when ever George Gruening, who has been in the office 15 years, decides to quit. Tegethoff also said that he would retain Miss Lily Preiss, a sister of the former Recorder, as his stenographer, and would offer Preiss' widow, Mrs. Marie Preiss, a position in the office.

PICKPOCKET, 9 YEARS OLD, HELD

Young Gang Leader Admits Stealing $10 to $50 a Day.

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—Leo Srokowski, 9 years old, leader of a band of juvenile pickpockets, who eluded the police for more than a month, ended his adventures in juvenile court today. He was arrested yesterday on a busy corner where he admitted he had picked scores of pockets. Two of his aids, whom he names, one 10 years and the other 11, escaped.

After school hours Leo and his confederates ply their trade, stealing from $10 to $50 a day, he said. "Women are easier than men, because their pocketbooks are swinging around," he told the police.

DIES FROM INJURIES BY AUTO ON JAN. 23

Head of Plumbing Concern Was in Street Because Walks Were Slippery.

John P. Glennon, 56 years old, of 5056 Cabanne avenue, president of the Fitzgerald-Glennon Plumbing Co., died yesterday afternoon at his home from injuries suffered Jan. 23, when he was knocked down at King's highway and Kensington avenue by an automobile driven by Robert L. Schmidt, 20 years old, of 8855A Ridge avenue.

At the time Glennon was walking in the middle of King's highway because of the slippery condition of the sidewalks. Schmidt, who was accompanied by his father, Otto L. Schmidt, proprietor of a meat market at 2334 Franklin avenue, told policemen that owing to the fact that his windshield was covered with ice and snow he failed to see Glennon until the car was almost upon him. Schmidt was not arrested.

Glennon was taken to St. John's Hospital, where it was found that he was suffering from an injury of the head and cuts and bruises on the body. He was removed to his home several days later, but had been under constant attention of physicians until his death.

When the police were informed of Glennon's death they notified Schmidt and his father to be at the coroner's inquest.

Glennon's death was the seventh automobile fatality since Jan. 1, as compared with nine in the corresponding period of last year. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Sarah Lyons Glennon, and a daughter, Mrs. Anderson Williams. The funeral will be at 10 a. m. tomorrow from St. Mark's Catholic Church, Academy avenue and Page boulevard, to Calvary cemetery.

Man Dies After Drinking Lotion.

Joseph Kenney, 48 years old, an attendant at St. Joseph's Hospital in St. Charles, died yesterday from alcohol poisoning. The inquest disclosed that Kenney had drunk an alcohol lotion.

ACQUITTED OF LARCENY CHARGE Car Repairer Testifies He Sold Auto Body for Another.

Bennett Nichols, 27 years old, a railroad car repairer, residing at 3676 Finney avenue, was acquitted of charges of grand larceny and receiving stolen property by a jury in Circuit Judge Gareche's court yesterday afternoon. The charges arose out of the theft of an automobile belonging to Dr. Adolph G. Schlossstein of 2153 Longfellow boulevard, May 26 last.

A sedan body, identified as that which had been attached to Dr. Schlossstein's car, was sold several months ago by Nichols, who conducted a repair shop at 2332 Park avenue. Testimony showed that when questioned Nichols admitted selling the body, but said that it had been left at his shop by a man named Malone, who paid him $10 for selling it.

Something new and better for tea

TOMORROW for tea—try Grapelade. Serve it with toast, wafers or muffins—or make tarts if you like—but try the new taste of Grapelade.

You'll like it—and so will everybody else. The true flavor of the full fresh grapes—rich in taste and color—smooth as velvet—and just tart-sweet enough.

Grapelade is a spread for bread or for toast, a filling for pastry, a sauce for meats, with practically no end to the many tasty ways in which it may be used.

Grapelade is just choice grapes and pure sugar—real "honey of grapes". Seeds, skins and acid crystals are removed. Try Grapelade today. In 15 oz. glass jars and 8 oz. tumbler—from your grocer. Write for a folder of splendid recipes.

15 WOMEN DELEGATES AT G. O. P. MEETING

Eleventh District to Send Woman to National Convention—Both Alternates Negroes.

Fifteen women delegates attended and voted in the Eleventh Congressional District convention at 1909 St. Louis avenue this afternoon to elect two delegates and two alternates to the National Republican convention to be held in Chicago June 8 next. As the delegates numbered 61, almost one-fourth of them were women.

Nine of the delegates were negroes. These were all men.

The district includes the third, fourth, eighth, ninth, tenth, twelfth and twenty-sixth wards and parts of the second, twenty-second and twenty-seventh.

Delegates chosen to go to the national convention were Mrs. Esther Butler of 2224 Hebert street, and Nat Goldstein, Circuit Clerk, of 2908 Dickson street. Mrs. Butler is the wife of E. E. Butler, an attorney, and is a daughter of Henry L. (Hank) Wecke, who resigned as Commissioner of Weights and Measures of St. Louis after it was found he was a German alien.

Both the alternates elected were negroes. They are W. R. Hill of 2404 Goode avenue, an Assistant City Counselor, and William H. Butler of 2404 Goode avenue.

SKELETON FAILS TO MOVE URY; WOMAN GETS $35,000 VERDICT

Mrs. Mary D. Daniels Gets Damages From Hotel for Injury to Sacro-Iliac Joint.

A judgment for $35,000 was awarded today to Mrs. Mary D. Daniels, wife of the manager of the Gayety Theater, by a jury in the Circuit Court against the Warwick Hotel for injuries suffered in an elevator accident at the hotel Oct. 9, 1918, when she was reading there. The verdict was for the full amount of the suit.

The hotel exhibited a skeleton before the jury to bear out its contention that Mrs. Daniels could not have been injured in the manner claimed.

Mrs. Daniels said that her sacro-iliac joint, connecting the hip bones with the spine, was loosened, causing permanent lameness. The defense maintained that it was mechanically impossible for a person to be injured in such a manner without the entire framework of the body being thrown out of position.

OKLAHOMA DELEGATES NAMED TO BACK OWEN

Democratic Senator Declares
His Hat Is in Ring for Presidential Nomination.

By the Associated Press.
MUSKOGEE, Ok., Feb. 6.—Forty delegates with half a vote each, were elected to the National Democratic convention at San Francisco, pledged to support Senator Robert L. Owen of Oklahoma for the Democratic presidential nomination. "until he is either nominated or releases them from further support," at the State Democratic convention which adjourned here last night.

The convention adopted a resolution asking Gov. J. B. A. Robertson to call a special session of the Legislature to ratify the constitutional woman suffrage amendment.

Addressing the convention yesterday Senator Owen formally launched his presidential candidacy when he declared "that is in the ring," and that "as in the race to the end."

Among the planks of his platform are repeal of the excess profits tax, the return to private ownership of the railroads, the enactment of a corrupt practice act to prevent the use of large sums of money in elections, reduction of the high cost of living by use of the powers of the Federal Reserve Board to fix and stabilize per capita wealth of the country, adoption of a national budget system, enactment of a law that would permit labor to participate in profits due to their toil, and to extend payment of the war debt over a period of 50 years.

By resolution Owen's candidacy was endorsed, as was the administration of President Wilson and Gov.
Robertson.

A resolution adopted denounced all opponents to the league of nations and demanded speedy ratification of the covenant "as President Wilson desires it."

George Bowman of Kingfisher was elected Democratic National Committeeman for Oklahoma to succeed
Tom L. Wade of Marlow. Wade withdrew from the race in favor of Bowman.

Joseph E. Davies Nominated to Head Wisconsin Delegates.

By the Associated Press.
MILWAUKEE, Wis., Feb. 6.—
Joseph E. Davies of Madison, former National Democratic Committeeman from Wisconsin, was nominated at a State conference yesterday to head the Wisconsin delegation to the Democratic National Convention at San Francisco. The delegates will go uninstrued.

Picturesque charm and variety are the salient features of the many authoritative models displayed. Russian and Oriental tendencies are shown in embroidered designs and color, while a revival of the quaint styles of 1880, Louis XV and Louis XVI are apparent. Street Dresses feature novel and rich embroideries on tricotine and Poirer twill. Afternoon Dresses of pronounced individuality show many draped and wing effects. The materials being taffetas, satins, Georgette in plain colors and pastel prints. Touches of metal fabrics, nets, laces and small sprays of flowers or fruit add to their attractiveness. Sizes 14 to 42.

New Suits

Unusual finesse of tailoring and design distinguish the Suits of tricotine, serge and Poirer twill. For those who fancy the more gay shades are the silver-tones and burellas. Semi-box Coats are in hip-length, Eaton and bolero effects, while skirts are made on slender lines and shorter, some two-tier and accordion pleated effects being noted. Embroideries, braid and buttons are used in trimmings. Suits for more formal wear frequently are three-piece models, and are made of cloth with bodies or waistcoats of pique, satin, metallic cloth, brocade and tricolette. Sizes 14 to 42.

COLLINSVILLE FUNERAL HALTED BY CORONER

Telephone Call Says Death Was Due to Murder and Not Alcohol Poisoning.

An inquest into the death of Louis Bozzello of Collinsville, Ill., will be reopened today by Coroner Krill of Madison County upon discovery that a blood clot at the base of the brain had caused his death, and not alcoholism, as the jury originally found. Someone who refused to tell his name called the Coroner yesterday at about the hour set for Bozzello's funeral and declared that Bozzello had been murdered. This caused the Coroner to halt the funeral and re-examine the body. He found the blood clot.

Bozzello was one of 15 Italians living in Collinsville who last fall bought a carload of tokay grapes from California. There was a drinking party at the home of one of the Italians Sunday and at its conclusion Bozzello was unable to go home and was kept overnight in the house. He was removed to his home Monday and died in the afternoon. His body showed a cut on the cheek, a blackened eye, but these were not contributory causes of death, in the opinion of the jury.

John Perino, Barney Devackio, his son, Joseph, and Enastu Salaro, who were members of the drinking party, are being held.

man was covering two districts and that one district, in which is Manchester, had not been counted because no enumerator had been appointed for that section. He was unable to find anyone who would undertake the work.

Residents of Manchester say that several of them have written to the Supervisor asking that a count be made there at once and suggesting several names of persons who would prove capable enumerators. Bell said that many of the enumerators were ill and that some had turned in incomplete reports to his office.
The eleventh district comprises the 11 counties in the Thirteenth Congressional district, and St. Louis County, which is in the Tenth Congressional district.

MISS KATHLEEN TODD WEDS DWIGHT SHELTON

Marriage at Home of Bride's Parents in Webster Is Followed by Reception.

THE marriage of Miss Kathleen Todd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. L. Todd of 21 West Swon avenue, Webster Groves, and Dwight M. Sheldon, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jasper W. Sheldon of Elm avenue, Webster Groves, took place yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. Dr. J. M. Albrecht of the Calvary Avenue Methodist Church officiating. Because of the recent death of the bridegroom's father, all the arrangements were very simple and only the relatives and a few close friends attended the ceremony and reception that followed.

The bride is a graduate of Northwestern University and Mr. Sheldon received his education at Overland College. The wedding came as somewhat of a surprise as no announcement of the engagement had been made.

COCOANUT OIL FINE FOR WASHING HAIR

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.
Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Multisided coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.
Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.
You can get Multisided coconut oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

NEW ORCHID NAMED FOR LATE COLLECTOR

Missouri Botanical Garden Announces Blooming of Plant Crossed in 1915.

A new orchid, which required five years of the careful nurturing that is required by all orchids to create and bring to flower, is in bloom at the Missouri Botanical Garden. The parents were crossed in February, 1915, the seed was ripened and planted in October of that year and the bloom has just appeared.
It has been named the D. S. Brown orchid, in honor of the late D. S. Brown of Kirkwood, who gave to the garden a collection of orchid plants valued at least at $100,000, and which brought the orchid collection at the Garden to rank as best in America. Its parents are from the Brown collection.
The new orchid is of the lady slipper variety. Its parents were chocolate brown, but it reverted to the color of one of its grandparents and is yellow, with a light pink upper sepal. It is larger than the flower of either of its parents, and even so, has not yet reached the full growth, which will come after a second or third blooming.

Story of Cultivation.
The story of the cultivation and care of this orchid is interesting. The seed that produced it was the only one of several thousand sown to germinate. It was planted in the same pot with its mother and passed its tender first months nurtured and protected by her. When it was 6 or 7 months old it was taken from its mother's side and put into its own pot, scarcely larger than a woman's thimble, and there watched and pampered until it reached sturdiness. Even now, when it is bearing its first flower, the pot that contains it is only about 2 1/4 inches in diameter.
The history of this orchid demonstrates why the orchid soon will be placed beyond the reach of the amateur who now covets it for her corsage, according to George H. Pring, horticulturist of the garden.
High Prices Predicted.
"The Government recently has prohibited the importation of orchid plants," he said, "because of its belief that certain injurious insects are brought in with the plants, which come from the tropics. You have seen how tedious is the development of orchid plants from seed. The result is that the florist who now grows the cattleya or gorgeous commercial orchid cannot hope to perpetuate the flower. Those that he does raise soon will be sold at fabulous price, and it is certain that the commercial orchid soon will disappear unless the ban on importation is lifted. It requires eight years to grow a cattleya to a point where its flower has commercial value, and the life of the ordinary plant is but five years, with a solitary bloom each year."

YOUNG MAN ADMITS THEFTS OF GOODS FROM BOX CARS
He and Boy From Arkansas Are Arrested and Merchandise Is Found in Their Room.
Oscar Sigrist, 29 years old, a shoe worker, arrested last night in a room at 326 Lamf street when policemen found merchandise valued at $200 stolen from freight cars stored in the room, said he had turned box car thief because injuries he suffered in an automobile accident six weeks ago had invalidated him. He said he began robbing freight cars a week ago. Sigrist's arrest followed that of Fay Laden, 18, who said he ran away from his home in Leonard, Ark., a year ago, and who has been roaming for two weeks with Sigrist. The boy was found carrying a sack filled with sugar, shoes and coffee at Third and Lamf streets. He ran when a policeman approached. He said he and Sigrist had obtained the goods in the sack from freight cars and that more was stored in their room. Shoes, leather, coffee and sugar were found there.
The boy was sent to the House of Detention and Sigrist held at the Wyoming street station.

MAN GIVES BAD CHECK FOR GOOD ONE TO GET $22 AND 600SE

Returns to Store and Cashes Dentist's Check Given Him in Change After Being Directed to Office.
Police are seeking a man about 20 years old, who went to a lot of trouble to get $22 in a series of manipulations with checks in South St. Louis yesterday.
He first called on the Padberg Mercantile Co., Broadway and Keokuk street, and asked to be recommended to a good dentist. He was referred to Dr. J. F. Gerwett, 2448 South Broadway. At Gerwett's office he had an examination of his teeth made and asked the price of the work. He said he would make a $20 deposit and gave a check for $48. The dentist gave him a personal check for $25 in change.
This check the man took to the Padberg store and cashed it when he bought a good one and ordered it sent to an Iowa avenue address. The address was found to be fictitious and the check he had given was returned from the bank.

WOMAN FOUND DEAD AT HOME, MAN SEATED IN CHAIR AT STORE

Both Had Complained of Colds, But Neither Had Medical Attention.
Mrs. Christina Reissen, 67 years old, was found dead on the floor of a bedroom at her home, 1421 South Eighth street, last night, when relatives broke into the place after being unable to get any response to their repeated rings at the door bell. Mrs. Louise Douglas of 809 Barry street, a daughter, told the police she had eaten dinner with her mother Wednesday, when the mother complained of a severe cold, but said her condition was not serious enough to call a physician. An inquest will be held.

John G. Besser, 72 years old, who lived and conducted an upholstery establishment at 3013 1/2 Olive street, was found dead seated in a chair in the place at 5 p. m. yesterday. A son, Thomas, told the police his father had complained of a severe cold, but had had no medical attention.

LIQUOR MAY BE USED FOR COOKING PURPOSE IN NEW YORK

Permits to Be Issued to Hotels and Restaurants to Keep Brandy and Wine on Hand.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Charles R. O'Connor, State Federal Prohibition Agent, announces that alcoholic liquors can be used for cooking purposes without violation of the law. O'Connor said: "New Yorkers have no need to do without brandy in their mince pies, or wine sauce on their puddings, as permits will be issued to hotels and restaurants to keep a stock of brandy and wine or whisky on hand for legitimate culinary purposes."

WELLPOT ACTS AS INDIVIDUAL

Member of Davis Committee Not President of Business Association.
In the list of members of the Executive Committee of the Dwight F. Davis campaign for the Republican nomination for United States Senator, as published Wednesday in the Post-Dispatch, W. H. Wellpot, one of the members, was identified as "a grocer and president of the West End Business Men's Association." This was an error. Wellpot is not president of that organization. Charles A. Pearson, president of the organization, says that Wellpot is acting wholly as an individual, and not as a representative of the organization in serving on the committee. The organization is non-political.

HIGH WAGES

Give Wage Earners a Chance to Become Owners of Industry and Sharers in Its Profits

Union Electric's, $1,000,000 issue of 7 per cent preferred stock, financing growth of this business, is being sold largely to men and women wage and salary earners. They are taking advantage of present high pay to buy shares of ownership, and of profits, in the St. Louis district's electric light, heat and power industry.

They are increasing their incomes by adding to their wages and salaries the earnings of their savings invested safely in an industry that pays a good preferred dividend rate, and pays it regularly.

Buyers of these shares have the whole St. Louis industrial district working for them. They own a real stake in the community. Steadily increasing ownership of such shares is the sure road to content and independence. Since the 20-share limit was taken off, many Union Electric customers have formed the habit of buying more shares from time to time as their funds accumulate.

The price is $100 a share for cash; $102 on a ten-payment plan, under which buyers draw 5 per cent interest on installment payments.

SALES OFFICES: Room 301 Union Electric Building, 12th and Locust streets, St. Louis, and Union Electric's offices in Franklin, Jefferson, Perry, St. Charles and St. Louis counties.

THE POST-DISPATCH'S DAILY RECORD OF MARKETS AND FINANCE

MARKS
CLOSE IN STOCK LIST

Early Losses Are Mostly Regained When Call Funds Drop to 10 Per Cent.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—The Evening Post, in its copyrighted financial review today, says:

"In another day of utter confusion on the international market, sterling exchange at one time had fallen 10 cents over yesterday's closing price, and then had fallen abruptly to $2.25; yet, at the same time, the London price for gold had fallen from yesterday's 127 shillings six pence per ounce to 125 shillings six pence. That it is, while sterling at New York has been rising steadily from $2.25 on Tuesday to $2.38 on Wednesday, and back to $2.40 this morning, the London gold market, during the same days, has risen from $1.45 to $1.48 and fallen back to $1.45.

"Today's decline in the gold premium may merely have been an effort to reflect the movement of exchange, or it may have indicated a slackening of India's competitive bid. The question of the price which India is offering for gold is becoming obscure, but of one fact there can be no doubt, that the best interests of the London market consist in the restraining or modifying whatever of arbitrary valuation exists in the sterling rate in India. If the thing is possible, the British Government and bankers would serve their own purpose by diverting the Transvaal gold arrivals to New York.

"Motors and oils were the objectives of another selling movement at midday, reacting 5 to 10 points from highest quotations of the morning. In their train were carried many other active shares, including steel and equipment. United States Steel falling under $5.

"No such movement as occurred today in sterling exchange can have resulted from normal influences. The practical certainty is that, in addition to the confusing rumors and obscure influences which surround the market, speculation on the London scale has been brought to a sharp halt, with much the same effect on rates as are produced on prices of stocks when a 'bear movement' culminates.

"The bewildering action of foreign exchange affected financial sentiment today. In the early hours, when the stock market was recovering, the stock market advanced rapidly. Some of the London stock market shares rose two to eight points before noon; but a reverse movement of great violence immediately set in carrying many of the London stocks down to the lowest of the week.

"In the midday reaction of the stock market, the money situation was a controlling influence; this in spite of the fact that the rate on call loans, which had opened at 17 per cent, yielded to 15 per cent. The actual tension in the Wall Street market is at present measured more accurately by the unusual rates for time loans on stock exchange, than by the rate on call loans. The latter and for merchants' paper; but the mere fact of a decline in call money had an immediate effect on the stock market, and accounted for the abrupt and violent recovery before the close.

"The commotion which appears to exist in England's markets as well as our own, over a 'British ban on cotton imports from America' has been taken calmly by well-informed people. The purchase of cotton by England in this country, it is quite true, accounts for all of the increase in her imports from the United States last year. By our own Government's figures, that increase over 1918 was $217,000,000, and the increase in export of cotton alone was more than $200,000,000.

"But the British Government of Trade has reported that while England's import of cotton from all quarters in 1919 increased 10,484,000 above the preceding year, her export of manufactured cotton goods increased 160,184,000. The large import of foreign cotton was, therefore, an absolutely essential factor in the regaining of England's export trade.

"At the close of last week, the stock of cotton held in England was the largest for that date since 1914. It was 1,116,000 bales, against 877,000 a year ago. The large English stock of cotton had helped in driving up the American price from 25 cents a pound in December, and the mere talk of stopping English purchases drove the spot price down from 35 cents at the end of last week, to 27 1/2 cents Wednesday.

"The English spinning trade could well afford to indulge in a temporary 'ban on orders for American cotton,' if such results could be obtained as the actual and effective readjustment of the 'balance of trade' will have to be brought about in the long run through our American export commodities than this."

Famous ~ Barr Co's February Sales

Should Attract Multitudes to Our Men's Clothes Section Saturday With These

$40, $45 & $50 SUITS and OVERCOATS at $ 32

Months ago we formulated the plans for this sale—with one big end in view—which was to make it the biggest clothing event in the annals of St. Louis! We've succeeded—wonderfully!—mainly because of the prestige we enjoy among many of America's most distinguished clothes manufacturers, who favored us with some 4000 Suits and 2000 Overcoats for this occasion.

And we purchased them at price concessions, too! That's why it's possible to offer such remarkable savings on high quality clothes in the face of stringent market conditions.

Every man and young man in or near St. Louis who is in need of good clothes should immediately take advantage of this opportunity and provide his present as well as future wants.

The Suits

Expertly tailored of all-wool fabrics in the most genteel styles, including single and double breasted models, with or without belts. Choice of novelty patterns in all shades and color-tones, also plain blue, brown and green flannels and blue serges, most of them lined with silk. Included are heavy-weight Suits for present wear and others in medium weights for Spring wear.

The Overcoats

Everything in Overcoats to meet the demands of men and young men of every type, build and proportion. Included are Ulsters, Ulsterettes, Greatcoats, Motor Coats and Coats for semi-formal wear, skillfully made of substantial fancy overcoatings. The greater majority of the Overcoats are quarter-lined with durable quality silk.

Second Floor

Beginning Saturday, Our February

Sale of Boys' Clothes

Offers $16, $18 and $20 Suits, Overcoats or Mackinaws for $13.75

Parents simply cannot afford to overlook this exceptional economy opportunity. Such savings as these on a tremendous stock of clothes that are involved, 1200 garments in all, are rarely offered, and it is our advice to buy your boy a goodly supply of clothes for immediate wear, for next Spring and for next Winter as well. Included are:

685 Norfolk Suits, $16 and $18 values...
337 2-Pants Suits, $16.50, $18.50, $20 values...
73 Mackinaws, $16 and $18 values...
105 Overcoats, $16, $18 and $20 values...

$ 13.75

THE SUITS are made of cassimeres, chevots and corduroys, with detachable belts and slash pockets, some having panel backs, others yokes. Knickers are full lined and are reinforced with double seats and knees. All sizes 8 to 15 years.

THE OVERCOATS include the newest models, double breasted, with detachable belts, slash, flap or muff pockets. All strongly made and well lined. Sizes 9 to 15 years.

THE MACKINAWS are well tailored in a variety of plaid and checked wool fabrics, in double-breasted style, with box pleats and yokes, detachable belts and slash pockets. All sizes from 9 to 16 years.

The Basement Economy Store Takes an Important Part in the February

Sale of Men's Clothing

Offering $22.50, $24.50 and $26.50 Suits and Overcoats at the Very Exceptional Price of $ 18.00

Past years have proved the worthiness of this great annual clothes event. This year will prove it once more. We're offering these Suits and Overcoats at $18, in spite of the fact that it will be impossible to replace them to sell at even the regular prices, and we're doing it because it is in keeping with our value-giving policy.

The Suits include the most popular styles—waistline, plain form-fitting, panel back and conservative models, splendidly tailored of worsteds, cassimeres, neat mixtures and plain blue serge. Sizes 16 years to 42 chest measurement.

The Overcoats are single or double breasted—ulsters, ulsterettes, some with half belts, others in panel back or plain form-fitting effects. All made of good substantial overcoatings, in desirable patterns and colors. Sizes 32 to 42 chest measurement.

TELLS US HOW TO—

Make Women's Eyes Behave

Women Who Would Be Beautiful Must Learn to Control the Muscles of Their Face—To Register Seductiveness, the Direction of the Eyes Should Be Changed Slowly, With a Dominant Downward Tendency—The Muscles of the Mouth Should Only Be Contracted When "On Duty."

CAN YOU MAKE YOUR EYES, FOREHEAD AND MOUTH BEHAVE?

Can you make your eyes behave? Or your mouth? Or your forehead? You should, if you wish to be beautiful. You can control the muscles of your face as completely as you can your arms or legs, and the result is beauty or the reverse.

There are three muscles of the face which are the most important in the preservation of youth and beauty. These are the muscles of the eyes, the forehead and the mouth.

The eyes, the windows of the soul, are often the best expression of a woman's character. The eyelids should be relaxed or opened moderately, without the exposure of the white above the colored portion, which is seductiveness, not an uncommon defect.

The direction of the eyes should be changed slowly and gently, with a dominant downward tendency, often observable in the eyes of those who are beautiful.

The muscles of the mouth should only be contracted when "on duty," that is, when the lips are parted in a seductive smile. The corners of the mouth should be relaxed, as they are the primary agents in the expression of the face.

The forehead is wrinkled horizontally and the brows are elevated by the contraction of the muscles of the forehead. The wrinkles in the forehead and the contraction of the brows are the result of the contraction of the muscles of the forehead.

The action of the muscles of the forehead is to raise the brows and to contract the wrinkles in the forehead. The action of the muscles of the forehead is to raise the brows and to contract the wrinkles in the forehead.

HOME ECONOMICS
By Mrs. Elizabeth Kent.

THE HOUSE OF DREAMS.

The first day in her new home a young woman wrote to her mother "I'm writing from the place where dreams come true." It was not the first house she had lived in but it was her first real home. She and her husband had lived in rented houses before and she had tried to make them fulfill her ideal of beauty, but this was her own home, planned by herself and built for her to live in. It was not perfect, but it was the expression of her ideals as far as bricks and mortar, wood and stone, paint and paper could make it.

They had selected the site to give as good an outlook as was possible, had placed the building as to secure some sunshine in every room, and had examined the soil to make sure that they were not building upon made land which might affect injuriously the health of the household. The land had good drainage and the cellar was well constructed as the superstructure.

With more than ordinary precautions this wise little woman had made sure that all the plumbing was selected and placed with every attention to economy and to fitness for the household needs and that the drains had been carefully laid.

As she looked about her she remembered with much satisfaction that there was no waste space and that the living space was well proportioned to the halls. The stair steps had been the subject of much discussion and she had prevailed upon the contractor to alter the relationship of the trend to the riser, by explaining to him that every day and many times each day she must go up and down these, and that therefore they must be correct. The kitchen had been studied in the light of the thousand meals that must be prepared there and of the many hours each week that she herself must spend in it.

It might yet be possible to make improvements in this house but it had been built only after years of study to avoid all the mistakes that she had had to endure in other houses. This was to be a home to nourish human lives, and it was the best that Wash could make it with the knowledge she had. It was her House of Dreams.

FOR UNPAINTED TABLE.

In two quarts of water, dissolve any strong acid, such as lye, washing soda. Wash the floor with a big clean cloth. Then wash with half a gallon vinegar. Lastly, rinse with plain water. This is a fine method and need only be used once a month. The same can be used to clean your kitchen table.

If you put the candles on ice for 25 hours before using them for the birthday cake they will not burn away so rapidly.

TAKING CARE OF CLOTHES

Today the lessened buying power of the dollar has caused women and girls in every walk of life to cultivate the art of properly caring for the various accessories of the wardrobe—hats, gloves, veils and shoes, and this care not only results in longer wear for the articles, but in a neater personal appearance for the wearer.

To paraphrase "by the little things shall ye know her"—a woman may be wearing her last spring's suit, but if her gloves are immaculate, her shoes well polished and with straight heels—if her hat is becoming and finished off with a veil which is not crumpled and is guileless of a break—she is well dressed.

Cleanliness is next to godliness and a few moments time given each day to the little details will more than pay for themselves in the results. Wash out silk hosiery, underwear and handkerchiefs frequently. It prolongs their service.

GLOVES—THEIR SELECTION AND CARE.

BUY gloves of good material, well-fitted and well-made. They are cheapest in the end. Prolong the life of gloves by blowing up and pulling gently into shape after use and mending rips as soon as the start. Small worn places can be repaired at a minor cost.

Consider the question of cleaning when choosing light-colored gloves; delicate shades of kid or fabric are not so likely to hold their color as white; ordinary white kid gloves need frequent cleaning, which is often difficult at home, especially for the business girl who is boarding, and cleaner's bills are no small item now-a-days. White cotton and silk wash easily but do not wear as long as good kid; good grades of washable kid and chamol are satisfactory when properly cared for, but the original cost is high.

Kid gloves may be dry-cleaned in a jar of gasoline or benzine; shake well, keep changing the liquid until all dirt is removed. Pull gently into shape and dry in a draft. Work out-of-doors and in the shade. Never keep gasoline or benzine in the house or in the sun.

Clean washable kid and chamol gloves in suds made of lukewarm water and mild soap. They keep their shape best if cleaned on the hand with a soft brush. Hard rubbing roughens the surface, especially on glazed kid. Rinse in clear lukewarm water. Slip carefully from the hand, pull gently and

The Sandman Story for Tonight

By MRS. F. A. WALKER.

What the Animals Found.

NO one ever knew how it came there, but after it was all over Mr. Fox, who visited the farms often than any of the others, thought that someone had a picnic in the woods and left it under the tree.

It was a box, not a very large one, but large enough to attract Mr. Fox as he walked through the woods one day under the bushes and back of the trees.

He, being a very wise and cautious fellow, did not touch it, but ran and told Billy Possum's house to tell him about it, and Billy, being very curious, ran with Mr. Fox to where the box was under the tree.

But after looking at it a while, Billy Possum decided that Tim Coon was the boy who should be given a chance to investigate; that is, to poke the box with his nose or paw and see what would happen.

So over they went to Tim's house and told him about their discovery. "We did not want to be selfish," said Mr. Fox, "so we came for you to share in the fun of seeing what is in it."

Tim was very much flattered when he heard this and off he went to see the mysterious box.

Mr. Fox, Tim Coon and Billy Possum all sat still and looked. Not one of them wished to touch it, although from all sides there seemed to be nothing that looked like a trap.

"What are you all looking at?" asked Jack Blackbird, looking down from the tree overhead, and when he saw the box he flew down in a hurry to look it over.

"Foot," he said, with a toss of his saucy head, "it won't hurt you," and he gave it a poke which turned the box over and there on one side Jack saw a little hook which held the cover.

All three animals moved back a little as Jack pecked at the hook with his bill, and they looked on with wide open eyes.

"Peck, peck, peck," went Jack Blackbird, and then the hook slipped back and off flew the cover and up jumped a hooked nose little fellow who had on a pointed cap and carried a stick in one hand.

The funny little fellow jumped so hard that his spring gave way and he went with a bound into the lower branch of the tree, where he caught on a twig by the back of his red coat.

All the animals ran to a place of safety and Jack Blackbird flew to a nearby bush to see what had happened.

Mrs. Bluejay soon told them, for she lived in that tree and her peace had been disturbed by what had happened.

"I should like to know," she said in an angry tone, "if you fellows haven't anything better to do than play with toys and scare a body near by out of their senses?"

"Here you have seen this creature up here in my tree and my children will never learn to fly while it is here. It will frighten them so, and I suppose I will have to remove it. I will pick off his spring and catch any of you around here again."

Then down to the lower limb flew angry Mrs. Bluejay, and giving the little creature with a crooked nose a vicious peck, down he fell right on his back, where all the animals, as well as Jack Blackbird, went home as fast as they could.

"I am sure it was a toy left there by some children," said Mr. Fox that night, when they were talking it over; "but you never can tell, and it pays to be careful, I find."

Have small rips mended at once; often they can be sewed at home.

INTELLIGENT care keeps the hats looking fresh and attractive. All ways dust before putting away after each wearing. Use a soft brush, or for fine felt, silk beaver, silk, satin or velvet hats, a piece of silk or velvet. Get the dust out from under the edges of bands, folds and trimmings.

Do not allow bands, bows, trimmings, linings or sweat bands to become loosened; tack them into place as soon as they begin to rip.

Store your hats where they will not gather dust, paper bags or hat boxes are good for this purpose and can be secured at any millinery establishment.

The Lord of Crersa

ANOTHER SHORT STORY

By E. Phillips Oppenheim

(Copyright, 1920.)

CHAPTER IV (Continued).

ROMAKOFF turned towards them. "Men of Crersa," he cried, "we have been betrayed, and by him in whom we trusted most. Let us not sell our hands with his blood. Send them forth to the Turks. Let them live and suffer the eternal torment of a dishonored life. Close the gates of the city upon them and then to the ramparts. For every Turk that enters Crersa another shall see hell."

"To the gates with them!" cried the mob. "Romakoff is right."

So in the twilight of a windy dawn the people of Crersa drove out their Prince, and with him the woman whose life he had saved at such a bitter cost.

A Turkish sentry found them and dragged them into the camp. It was the old father of Menid Bey to whom Prince Maurice, without faltering, told his story, and when he had finished there was silence. The old man rose up, dry-eyed but terrible in his anger.

"The Countess of Merguillon," he said, "is our honored guest, and we will spare means to send her before long to her country. To you, Prince of Herania," he continued, "shall be dealt out such punishment as befits the murderer of my son, an obstinate enemy and a traitor to his natural suzerain, the Sultan."

"The Sultan is no suzerain of mine, nor ever has been," cried Prince Maurice. "Neither am I a traitor." The old man ignored him.

"Today," he said, "is a feast day with you, Christian dogs, the feast of Christmas. You shall spend it fittingly, I promise you. Away with him, guards."

The Countess fell on her knees. "My lord," she cried, "have mercy upon him. Your son fell in fair fight, as I myself saw. If anyone is guilty of his death it was I, for he came to see me. You are a brave man and a soldier. You will not disgrace your country and your profession."

Menid Pasha thrust out a yellow, skinny forefinger towards her. There was no yielding in his face. "Remove the woman," he said, "and see that she is securely lodged. As for the Prince of Herania, he shall help his people keep their Christmas."

CHAPTER V.

A Crime Redeemed.

W HEN morning broke they who stood on the walls of the city beheld a strange sight. Not a mile away, between the camp of the enemy and the city, on a slight hill, a rude cross of pine wood had been erected, and upon the cross was stretched the figure of a man bound with cords. They gazed at it for long in wonder, and then a fearful whisper went round, and they gathered together with pale faces and doubtful hearts. The man who was bound there, the victim of a slow and horrible death, was their Prince Maurice of Herania, their Prince whom they had driven forth as a traitor.

Word of the Prince's death was a friend? They fetched Romakoff and Hohenlof to gaze upon the hideous sight. Some of them even faintly cried that they heard faint cries of agony borne upon the icy wind. The people of the city grew restless, and many dark faces were turned upon Romakoff.

The muttering grew into a storm. They gathered together at the southern gate, before his house, and there someone found a fainting woman, her delicate hands clasping the iron bars, her clothes sodden, her feet blood-stained. And until she opened her eyes and spoke no one recognized the beautiful Countess of Merguillon.

She staggered to her feet. Whence came her sudden strength she could not tell, but she found voice and courage enough to stand up and speak so that her voice traveled to the farthest of them.

"Men of Crersa," she cried, "it is your Prince whom they have bound there. He is no traitor. It is I alone who am guilty. I made him swear upon his honor to save me, so he took the blame of what he knew nothing of. It is the father of Menid Bey who has planned this horrible thing. Listen: Are you men to let your Prince suffer a frightful death and never strike a blow?"

Then came hoarse cries from amongst them. "What can we do?" "Their guns sweep the plain."

A spot of color flared in her cheeks. "Listen," she cried, "and I will tell you a secret. I will tell you why the Turks are so desperate, that they have done this thing to make you sue for peace. Their ammunition is spent. Their guns are as useless as old iron."

A murmur of excitement thrilled through them. "Men of Crersa," she said, "you have fought a valiant fight, and you are in desperate straits. Strike one great blow for your freedom and for your Prince. I know a side of the Turkish camp where never a scout is posted, and where you can fall upon them without the slightest warning. Their guns are useless. You will cut them to pieces like sheep. Be men, and live to remember this night as the greatest in your history."

There was a roar of acclamation. They gave her food and wine, and under cover of the darkness the men of Crersa—ay, and many of their women, too—stole out by a roundabout way to the Turkish camp. The story of that night is history—only before daylight a few scattered handfuls of Turks were flying across the mountains, leaving behind them a slaughtered host. Of the Turkish army nothing remained. When they looked for the woman who had led them out, they found her with a formless figure wrapped in her arms, lying underneath the cross, striving to keep him alive by the warmth of her body.

Two years later, all Paris was crowded to the reception of the Madame La Comtesse, the first since her husband's death. Many guests had passed through her rooms and left. The evening grew late, and the last guest had taken his leave. The Countess was alone, when a major-domo, recalled to his duties, threw open once more the door of her apartment.

"His royal highness, Prince Maurice of Herania,"

A little cry broke from her lips—or was it a sob? He took her outstretched hands and looked down into her startled face.

"Are you surprised?" he asked. "My lord," she answered, "I have no idea that you were in Paris."

"I arrived only last night," "And Crersa?" "Crersa is herself again. My Ministers tell me that we need only one thing more, the Prince. That is why I have come to Paris."

The color flooded her cheeks and left them again almost immediately. She remained silent.

"There is only one woman, Sophie, whom my people would welcome, and there is only one woman whom their Prince could marry. So I have come to you. You will not send me away?"

She looked at him radiant with happiness. Yet for a moment she hesitated.

"You are sure, Maurice, that your people?"

"They have canonized you," he answered; "but I remember only that you are the woman who saved Crersa."

"And you—? Is that how you also remember me?"

He took her hands into his.

"I remember also," he answered, "that you are the woman who saved my life, and the woman whom I have always loved."

Harvey Thorp to Show Wares at Armory Tonight

Fred Nelson, Who Was Too Ill to Meet Daily Tuesday, Scheduled as Opponent.

Tonight's Card

MAIN EVENT—Harvey Thorp, Kansas City, vs. Fred Nelson, St. Louis, eight rounds, at catchweights.

SEMIWINDUP—Ray Long, Joplin, vs. Tommy Rowan, Brooklyn, eight rounds at 145 pounds.

PRELIMINARY—Johnny Underwood, Memphis, vs. Sammy Sherman, St. Louis, six rounds, 120 pounds.

Harvey Thorp of Kansas City, who a few years ago was one of the leading candidates for the lightweight championship, will make his second appearance of the season here tonight, when he meets Fred Nelson in the eight-round feature bout of the Rialto A. C. at the Armory. The contest will be at catchweights, with Thorp conceding his opponent at least 10 pounds.

In his other appearance here Thorp opposed Bobby Anderson, the slugging Duquoin boxer. In the third round Thorp connected solidly with Anderson's jaw and Bobby was hauled to his corner by his seconds. Anderson has not boxed since.

Not so with Thorp. He is one of the busiest battlers in the ring. His clash tonight will be his second engagement of the week. Only last Monday night he gave Charley Stapp, local 150-pounder, a good drubbing in 10 rounds at Springfield, Mo. Thorp dropped Stapp for the count in one of the early rounds.

A short time before the Stapp bout Thorp went 10 rounds with Ray Long, the Joplin 142-pounder, who is scheduled to show in the semi-windup tonight, and reports of the engagements disagreed as to the winner. Jan. 30 Thorp stopped Soldier Davis in three rounds. All of which shows that Thorp has to do little training to get in condition. He just fights himself into shape.

In 1916 Thorp was stopped by Benny Leonard in a local ring. He has boxed Charley White, Lew Tonder, Arlos Fanning, Otto Wallace, Johnny Noye and other good boys in the last two years.

Nelson was substituted for Sailor Jersack, who in a letter to Eddie Randall stated that he had retired. Nelson earlier in the week was scheduled to meet Tommy Daly, but called off the match, claiming illness.

Ray Long, who is scheduled to meet Tommy Rowan in the semi-windup, has come to the front in the last year. He has done most of his fighting around Joplin and Springfield, Mo. "What he is a fairly good boy is shown by the fact that he went 10 rounds with Thorp. Little is known here of Tommy Rowan.

Johnny Underwood, whose last local appearance resulted in his being stopped by Joe McMullen, will tackle Sammy Sherman in the six-round curtain raiser.

Eddie Randall will referee.

SIX AMATEUR CONTESTS AT SOUTHERN TONIGHT

Six amateur boxing bouts are scheduled to be decided under the auspices of the Southern Amateur Carondelet Turner Hall tonight. The schedule is as follows:

Elmer Hemmenway, Stag A. C., and Red Whalen, Senate A. C., 115 pounds.

Jack Callahan, South Broadway A. C., and Johnny Curran, Southern A. C., 100 pounds.

Carl Nelson, Stag A. C., and Johnny Klein, Southern A. C., 108 pounds.

Al Jaquet, Stag A. C., and Mike Kramer, Southern A. C., 112 pounds.

Steve English, Senate A. C., and Charles Sparks, Stag A. C., 125 pounds.

Harry Roth, South Broadway A. C., and Tom Corrie, Northwest A. C., 145 pounds.

Walker Helmer will referee, while Judge Hall will be judge.

Lawler Knocks Out Avera.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Feb. 6.—Jack Lawler, of Omaha, Neb. stopped Larry Avera in the fifth round of the boxing bout here last night. Young McGovern defeated Freddie Bodie in the preliminary.

Prince of Wales at Its Head, the Boxing Union Ought to Have a 'Royal Outlook'

Championships Will Be Safeguarded in Every Way, Managers and Promoters Relegated to the Background and Ringside Weighing Banished, if Proposed Rules Are Adopted.

By John E. Wray.

INTERNATIONAL complications are not confined to the League of Nations for peace. The proposed League of Nations for fighting (i. e. boxing), delegates to which convened at Paris, today, is seriously menaced by the attitude of the French delegation, which wants to have three countries represented by 10 votes each—England, America and France—and lesser countries by smaller voting powers. Thus far the United States has declined to figure in the proceedings, but is expected to be represented later.

If the tangle is straightened out, and the union passes an international code, the great game of altering the other fellow's map will be established on a footing far beyond the wildest dream of optimists.

The code proposed, if passed substantially as written, would provide for complete subordination of the boxer, the manager and the private promoter to the interests of the public and of the game. It would standardize rules governing the actual boxing, as well as the circumstances attending the holding of championships. It would establish an international scale of weights and provide for uniform referee interpretations.

In short, the permanent organization of the Boxing Federation would be the millennium.

Some of the provisions of the proposed code are almost unique and indicate that some experienced persons have participated in the drawing up of the code.

Boxers and Managers Barred.

One of the first matters attended to provides that no professional boxers, managers or organizers of professional contests shall be eligible to representation or office in the international boxing union.

Other rules provide that penalties shall be levied against a boxer who is convicted of a violation of the code in one country shall be observed everywhere. All boxers convicted shall have their engagements automatically canceled by their suspension.

Another clause fixes the (stripped) weights at which championships must be contested as follows:

Fly—Up to 112 pounds.

Bantam—Up to 118 pounds.

Featherweight—Up to 126 pounds.

Light—Up to 135 pounds.

Welter—Up to 147 pounds.

Middle—Up to 160 pounds.

Heavy—Up to 175 pounds.

Heavy—All weights from and above 175 pounds.

The code abolishes the barbarous weighing at ringside, a system de-

Browns' Recruit Had Good Record

Pitcher Davis Yielded 2.42 Earned Runs per Game in Association Last Year.

Frank (Dixie) Davis, the right-hander obtained by the Browns from the Louisville club, ranked eighth in efficiency among the pitchers in the American Association last season. Davis in 372 innings yielded 100 earned runs, an average of 2.42 per game. He passed 161 batters and fanned 161. He won 22 and lost 29 contests. He was the "iron man" of the A. A.

Roy Sanders, obtained via the waiver route from the Yankees, in 244 innings with Toledo was found for 97 earned runs, an average of 3.97. He won 12 and lost 19 for Bresnahan's club.

Polly McLarry, who was grabbed by the Cardinals from the Birmingham club of the International, batted .326 in 1919. In 140 games McLarry made 165 hits in 478 attempts, scored 56 runs. He had 22 sacrifices, 21 stolen bases. His safeties included 36 doubles, 13 triples and 3 homers.

Joe Schepner, who will attempt to push Jimmy Austin off the third sack for the Browns, topped the far-corner guard in the Southern League in fielding last season with 94. In 123 games Schepner had 174 putouts, 243 assists and only 19 errors.

Tired Pikers to Oppose Grinnell Quintet Tonight

Washington Beats Drake 29 to 4, but Shows Effects of Strenuous Schedule.

The Grinnell College five, which gave the Washington University basketball team its hardest battle on the recent trip to Iowa, will call at Francis Gymnasium for games tonight and tomorrow afternoon.

The Pikers met the Pioneers last Friday night, and won the contest, 28-25, after being forced to play a five-minute extra period to break a 24-24 tie. The local players said they were handicapped by the band-court in Grinnell. Coach Tolmy's team has dropped a two game series to the Kansas Aggies and lost its one contest with Iowa.

When the teams met last week, Left Forward Evans of Grinnell scored seven field goals and was carrying them from all over the court. However, Kraehe, who is instructed to stick with him tonight, and he may meet with more difficulty.

Pikers Appear Tired. However it was indicated in last night's 29 to 4 victory over Drake that the Red and Green players were tired from their long grind of this and last week. They did not move fast in their team tactics and consistently showed a tendency to avoid the more tiring short, running passes.

Inasmuch as last night's game was the sixth in nine days, such a condition is natural. The local squad has faced a stiffer schedule of traveling, practicing and playing since Jan. 28 than any Washington U. team has in many seasons.

Tonight's lineup will be: Washington Position Grinnell Hurd...Left forward...Evans...Right forward...Wassenaar...Center...Russell...Left guard...Lansner...Right guard...Winter...The story over the Bulldogs marked the sixth successive triumph for the local men and also the most decisive one of the year. The Pikers were the aggressors from the start of the game and at no time was there any doubt as to the outcome. Drake's meager total represents one field goal and two free throws. The basket from the field did not come until the second half was almost half spent and was made by Capt. Lamar, who immediately before had been switched from guard to forward.

Local Defense Strong. A strong five-man defense kept the Pike team from scoring except on the play past midcourt except on a few occasions.

Washington had a hard time getting its scoring started, due mainly to the fact that two men were put on Hurd. However this condition was soon alleviated when Kraehe persisted in going down-court, taking the passes, and shooting. This disconcerted the Drake defense, so that one of Hurd's guards stuck with Kraehe, thus enabling Hurd to start scoring. Once again the Illinoisian had a big night, losing seven field goals in the net. They came from all angles.

About five minutes from closing time, Rutherford put his pony squad in the game. The reserves held Drake scoreless and added a pair of points to their total, when Linnemeyer scored.

BARKER NAMED HEAD OF MISSOURI SOCCER BODY

Winton E. Barker, president of the St. Louis Soccer League, last night was elected president of the Missouri Division of the United States Football Association. A. J. Brady was named vice president; Phil Riley, treasurer, and Charles Barclay, secretary.

The regular league schedule will be resumed next Sunday with the Ben Millers playing the Innishalls in the second and feature game. The Screw Co. and Scullins furnish the opener.

BRITAIN'S BACKER SAYS TOLEDO MUST RAISE ITS GUARANTEE TO LAND BOUT.

"Toledo has offered us a $7500 guarantee," said Hughes. "It must be $10,000 or there will be no fight."

YOUNG ATTELL DEFEATS CANDLER IN 8 ROUNDS AT LAFAYETTE A. C.

Young Abe Attell of St. Louis outpointed Ivan Candler of East St. Louis in the feature bout of the Lafayette A. C. boxing show at 2330 Olive street last night. Attell carried the fight to the East St. Louis boxer, and would have scored a more decisive victory had he refrained from holding after each delivery. Abe also showed the better condition, taking some hard wallops from his heavier opponent.

Sammy Mandell of Rockford, Ill., easily beat Benny Shapiro, a local amateur. Mandell, a brother of Joe Mandell, also a protégé of Merle Collins, showed a coolness and a left jab that baffled Shapiro.

Young Costello and Kid Inky, colored boxers, battled to a draw in the curtain raiser. The "Jack Dillon"—Jack Sweeney bout was cancelled because of Sweeney's illness. All bouts were eight rounds.

Vice-Presidency Reserved for America, Not Represented at Session in Paris.

Wonder if Uncle Sam will allow the Milwaukee team to retain the name of "Brewers."

And that was some time ago when $5 looked like real money.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY

By James J. Montague.

SCIENTIFIC CURIOSITY.
I do not know if oysters try
To learn why men are fond of pie,
Nor do I know if Belgian hares
Concern themselves with my affairs.
I never yet have met a claim
Who seemed to give a single snap
About the traits of heart and mind
Indigenous to human kind.

It's possible that crabs and sprats
Investigate the price of flats.
Or wonder why we do not yell
About the rising H. C. L.
They may not, and again they may—
I really truly cannot say.

Biologists, as all men know,
Are always seeking light to throw
Upon the lives of shrimps and snails
And crocodiles and yaks and whales,
And on the intimate affairs
Of conger eels and Kodak bears.

But animals show no concern
About the pay professors earn,
Nor care if the biologist
Was ever loved or ever kissed.
And I conclude, from what I've read,
That animals are better bred!

FAR FROM IT.
The ruling that education is not a luxury is hardly surprising at a time when three college professors can be hired for the price of one janitor.

Before But After.
Wife (as doorman rings): "That woman always comes here just before dinner."

His Only Chance.
"Can I get a room for the night?"
Asked the man to the hotel clerk.
"No," replied the clerk; "we haven't got a room in the house."
"Where in thunder am I going to sleep, then?"
"Why, there's a movie picture show on the next block. They have continuous performances, I believe."—Yonkers Statesman.
